Forest Notes ,1990 Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Education Kaye Price,2015-07-03 The second edition of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Education An Introduction for the Teaching Profession prepares students for the unique environment they will face when teaching Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students at early childhood primary and secondary levels This book enables future teachers to understand Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander education within a social cultural and historical context and uses compelling stories and practical strategies to empower both student and teacher Updated with the Australian Curriculum in mind this is a unique textbook written by highly regarded Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander academics Each chapter opens with a powerful anecdote from the author connecting the classroom to real world issues This updated edition has also been expanded to include information on fostering the unique talents of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children and young people and allows the reader to reflect on classroom practices throughout

Teaching the Trees Joan Maloof,2010-09-15 In this collection of natural history essays biologist Joan Maloof embarks on a series of lively fact filled expeditions into forests of the eastern United States Through Maloof s engaging conversational style each essay offers a lesson in stewardship as it explores the interwoven connections between a tree species and the animals and insects whose lives depend on it and who in turn work to ensure the tree s survival Never really at home in a laboratory Maloof took to the woods early in her career Her enthusiasm for firsthand observation in the wild spills over into her writing whether the subject is the composition of forest air the eagle s preference for nesting in loblolly pines the growth rings of the bald cypress or the gray squirrel s fondness for weevil infested acorns With a storyteller s instinct for intriguing particulars Maloof expands our notions about what a tree is through her many asides about the six species of leafhoppers who eat only sycamore leaves or the midges who live inside holly berries and somehow prevent them from turning red As a scientist Maloof accepts that trees have a spiritual dimension that cannot be quantified As an unrepentant tree hugger she finds support in the scientific case for biodiversity As an activist she can t help but wonder how much time is left for our forests
