Philippians: the Theology of Joy Edward L. Kanniah, 2018-12-13 Joy in the Christian life has never been a divine suggestion but an indelible part of His new creation yet we have found that much of what is today dubbed Christianity lacks this intrinsic feature As to naming the source of the problem we have found many views But this author has but one to name and that is the laziness of modern Christians in understanding their position in Christ Christians do not make the study of the scriptures a lifestyle Joy as a concept was God's invention not man's and yet today people are convinced that they can obtain this blessing without Him He gave it and outlined only in His Word how to get it and keep it This is why I call it a theology and not a philosophy It requires thinking biblically A pastor of a local church and loves teaching the Bible verse by verse

Jude on the Attack Alexandra Robinson, 2017-12-14 Alexandra Robinson examines the letter of Jude in the light of repeated scholarly references to this source as an invective a polemic and an attack speech with a dependence on both Jewish and Greco Roman sources Moving beyond the Hellenism Judaism divide Robinson specifies what these elements are and how they relate to the harsh nature of the discourse This study shows how where and why Jude borrows from these contemporary genres with a detailed survey of Greco Roman invectives and Jewish judgement oracles comparing and contrasting them to the epistle of Jude with consideration of structure aims themes and style Robinson argues that Jude has constructed a Jewish invective and that his epistle is a polemical text which takes the form structure aims and style of a typical Greco Roman invective but is filled with Jewish content themes and allusions drawing on Israel s heritage for the benefit of his primarily Jewish Christian audience A Guide to Biblical Commentaries and Reference Works, 11th Edition
