The Oryx Resource Guide to El Niño and La Niña Bloomsbury Publishing, 2002-05-30 Fish die Seagulls starve Economies wither And that s just in the coastal villages El Ni o The Christ Child and its climatological opposite La Ni a are global events so powerful and strange they virtually have personalities Many remember the El Ni o seasons of 1982 83 and 1997 98 which brought floods tornadoes droughts and snow to unusual locales Increased study of these Tropical Pacific phenomena also known as ENSO the El Ni o and Southern Oscillation has now enabled scientists to predict the ENSO state as much as 12 to 18 months in advance and has helped to shape weather prediction in general Here the basic causes and effects of El Ni o and La Ni a are carefully chronicled for anyone in search of accurate and current information on these natural phenomena Chapters are devoted to the history of ENSO its influence on global weather and on the United States including the ecosystem and how governments and industries worldwide are utilizing new weather data to harness ENSO's economic impact rather than be saddled by it. A chronology tours key events from the 15th century diary observations of colonists in Ecuador and Peru to recent events like the devastating El Niño of 1997-98 which was responsible for 23,000 deaths and $33 billion in damages. Biographies of important researchers, illustrations and maps and an extensive bibliography help make this a total guide to these magnificent natural cycles.

Necrogeopolitics Caroline Alphin, François Debrix, 2019-10-08. Necrogeopolitics On Death and Death Making in International Relations brings together a diverse array of critical IR scholars, political theorists, critical security studies researchers and critical geographers to provide a series of interventions on the topic of death and death making in global politics. Contrary to most existing scholarship, this volume does not place the emphasis on traditional sources or large scale configurations of power force leading to death in IR. Instead, it details, theorizes and challenges more mundane, perhaps banal and often ordinary modalities of violence perpetrated against human lives and bodies and often contributing to horrific instances of death and destruction. Concepts such as slow death, soft killing, superfluous bodies or extra ordinary destruction, disappearance are brought to the fore by prominent voices in these fields alongside more junior creative thinkers to rethink the politics of life and death in the global polity away from dominant IR or political theory paradigms about power force and violence. The volume features chapters that offer thought provoking reconsiderations of key concepts, theories and practices about death and death making along with other chapters that seek to challenge some of these concepts, theories or practices in settings that include the Palestinian territories, Brazilian cities, displaced population flows from the Middle East, sites of immigration policing in North America and spaces of welfare politics in Scandinavian states.

Performance, Trauma and Puerto Rico in Musical Theatre Colleen Rua, 2023-08-11. This study positions four musicals and their associated artists as mobilizers of defiant joy in relation to trauma and healing in Puerto Rico. This book argues that the historical trajectory of these musicals has formed a canon of works that have reiterated, resisted or transformed experiences of trauma through linguistic ritual and geographic interventions. These traumas may be disaster related, migrant related, colonial or patriarchal. Bilingualism and translation, ritual action and geographic space engage moments of trauma, natural disaster, incarceration, death and healing, community celebration, grieving, emancipation in these works. The musicals considered are West Side Story (1957/2009/2019), The Capeman (1998), In the Heights (2008) and Hamilton (2015). Central to this argument is that each of the musicals discussed is tied to Puerto Rico either through the representation of Puerto Rican characters and stories or through the Puerto Rican positionality of its creators. The author moves beyond the musicals to consider Lin Manuel Miranda as an embodied site of healing that has been met with controversy as well as post-Hurricane Maria relief efforts led by Miranda on the island and from a distance. In each of the works discussed, acts of belonging shape notions of survivorship and witness. This book also opens a dialogue between these musicals and the work of island-based artists. Y no hab a luz that has served as sites of first response to disaster. This book will be of interest to students and scholars in Latinx Theatre, Musical Theatre and Translation studies.
