Educational Encounters: Nordic Studies in Early Childhood Didactics Niklas Pramling,Ingrid Pramling Samuelsson,2011-08-10 Qualitative analyses of young children s learning in natural settings are rare so this new book will make educators sit up and pay attention It lays out a Nordic or continental European teaching and learning paradigm whose didactic framework is distinct from the Anglo American system This analysis which features contributions and case studies from researchers in a range of subjects is built on principles such as the learner s perspective establishing sufficient intersubjectivity pointing out and informing experience linguistically After clarifying some historical background the book discusses the contemporary emphasis in early childhood education on pedagogy learning What should didactics mean in educating young children The book examines the opportunities for learning that teachers provide for children in early childhood education as well as how children respond to these opportunities It presents empirical studies from a variety of naturalistic settings including mathematics making visual art ecology music dance literacy and story telling as well as learning about gender morality and democracy The authors seek to answer key questions about the processes involved in both teaching and learning What challenges do teachers face as they try to expand children s knowledge in various fields of learning How do they respond to these challenges and what can we learn about children s corresponding uptake What now requires further research One key distinction in researching children s learning is between studies that look at process and those that analyze product In the tradition of Piaget Vygotsky and Werner as well as Mercer and Valsiner s more recent work this book advocates the importance and relative rareness of the former type of study Early Learning and Child Well-being in Estonia OECD,2020-03-21 This report sets out the findings from the International Early Learning and Child Well being Study in Estonia The study assesses children s skills across both cognitive and social emotional development and how these relate to children s early learning experiences at home and in early childhood education and care Handbook of Research-Based Practice in Early Education D. Ray Reutzel,2014-07-09 Written expressly for early childhood educators and those who support their professional development this handbook distills essential knowledge about how to help all PreK 3 learners succeed Leading experts describe doable ways to create effective learning environments and implement instructional practices with a strong evidence base Engaging vignettes illustrate discussions of such topics as differentiated instruction response to intervention the Common Core standards social and emotional learning assessment and teaching across the curriculum Each chapter links cutting edge research to practical applications examples and professional development activities Teachers' and Families' Perspectives in Early Childhood Education and Care Sivan Phillipson,Susanne Garvis,2019-01-30 The second volume in this Early Childhood Education in the 21st Century International Teaching Family and Policy Perspectives miniseries focuses on teacher and family perspectives of early childhood education and care from 19 different countries around the world The aim of this volume is to articulate the key components of teacher education and family practices that impact young children s education and care Each country featured in this volume presents its own unique perspective in relation to the cultural and societal constraints around teacher training and or family practices and the thinking around those practices that are important for early childhood development Offering a unique insight into how teachers and families work together in different countries the book is essential reading for early childhood educators researchers early childhood organisations policy makers and those interested to know more about early childhood within an international perspective Senate Document , Ecological Perspectives in Early Language Education Mila Schwartz,2024-02-27 This book presents ecological perspectives towards early language education that conceptualise the phenomenon of interactions between child language based agency teachers agency peers agency and parents agency consequently furthering insights into the lives of young children growing up in multilingual homes Drawing on rich empirical research evidence the book explores teachers and family strategies and practices aimed at enhancing children s interest in home language maintenance and enrichment as well as in the novel language learning It defines early language education as the education of children up to the age of 6 and considers international evidence of children s language from diverse sociolinguistic backgrounds and indigenous endangered heritage regional minority majority and marginalized languages as well as foreign and second languages in education at home and out of home settings It claims that only through collaboration between teachers families peers and close environment can the child be engaged in early language learning and fully experience his or her potential to act as agent in a novel language learning The book will be of great interest to researchers academics and postgraduate students in the fields of language education multilingualism applied linguistics and early childhood education Practitioners in these fields may also find the volume a valuable resource Prekindergarten
