The LARB Quarterly Journal Tomed Lutz, 2015-08-17 The signature print edition of the Los Angeles Review of Books

City at the Edge of Forever Peter Lunenfeld, 2020-08-11 An engaging account of the uniquely creative spirit and bustling cultural ecology of contemporary Los Angeles How did Los Angeles start the 20th century as a dusty frontier town and end up a century later as one of the globe's supercities with unparalleled cultural economic and technological reach In City at the Edge of Forever Peter Lunenfeld constructs an urban portrait layer by layer from serendipitous affinities historical anomalies and uncanny correspondences In its pages modernist architecture and lifestyle capitalism come together via a surfer girl named Gidget Joan Didion's yellow Corvette is the brainchild of a car crazy Japanese American kid interned at Manzanar and the music of the Manson Family segues into the birth of sci-fi fandom One of the book's innovations is to brand Los Angeles as the alchemical city Earth became real estate when the Yankees took control in the nineteenth century Fire fueled the city's early explosive growth as the Southland's oil fields supplied the inexhaustible demands of drivers and their cars Air defined the area from WWII to the end of the Cold War with aeronautics and aerospace dominating the region's industries Water is now the key element and Southern California's ports are the largest in the western hemisphere What alchemists identify as the ethereal fifth element or quintessence this book positions as the glamour of Hollywood a spell that sustains the city but also needs to be broken in order to understand Los Angeles now Lunenfeld weaves together the city's art architecture and design juxtaposes its entertainment and literary histories and moves from restaurant kitchens to recording studios to ultra secret research and development labs In the process he reimagines Los Angeles as simultaneously an exemplar and cautionary tale for the 21st century Los Angeles Review of Books - Quarterly Journal Fall 2014 Tom Lutz, 2014-12-02

Launched in 2011 as online magazine to revive the great American tradition of the long form literary and cultural arts review the Los Angeles Review of Books has established itself as a new institution for writers and readers unlike anything else A nonprofit multimedia literary and cultural arts magazine LARB combines serious book review with the evolving technologies of the web The LARB Quarterly Journal reflects the best that this institution has to bring to readers all over the world Cultivating a stable of regular contributors both eminent Jane Smiley Mike Davis Jonathan Lethem and emerging Jenny Hendrix Colin Dickey Rachel Kaadzi Ghansah LARB achieves a certain tone that readers expect and enjoy looser and more eclectic than other journals grounded in literature but open to all varieties of cultural experience far from the New York publishing hothouse atmosphere but not myopically focused on Los Angeles either The LARB Quarterly Journal builds on the best aspects of the online magazine and proves that long form literary and cultural arts review is alive and well ,

Interrogating Neoliberalism and Cruel Optimism in Education Louise Azzarello, 2025-03-31 This book is a philosophical examination of the ways in which neoliberalism underpins and impedes public education It proposes that education's adoption of neoliberal logic generates a sense of despair amongst educators who often enter the profession with the hope of building a better more just world Drawing on the author's 27 years of experience as a secondary classroom teacher and engaging with a range of theoretical concepts cultural objects and scenes of violence from her time in the classroom The Radical Potency of Despair renders visible the ongoing harms that neoliberal logic creates for education and educators The author proposes a new ruptured fantasy of education and suggests that it is not hope that ignites educators who keep fighting for education but rather despair Despair is conceived of as a generative force provoking educators to hold time and space open for pedagogical encounters that interrupt the ongoing instrumentalization of education The author further conceptualizes a notion of thinking with images as a pedagogical interruptive force Thinking with images she argues gives students time and space to attend to what they see thus affording them the chance to think differently about the violence of modern society Such pedagogical interruptions are presented as a refusal of the normative order of education countering present infrastructures that aim to constrain and instrumentalize education A compelling and original volume it will appeal to scholars researchers and upper level students with interests in neoliberalism and education the philosophy of education critical pedagogy and educational policy and politics The Palgrave Handbook of Affect Studies and Textual Criticism Donald R. Wehrs, Thomas Blake, 2017-12-01 This volume provides a comprehensive account of how scholarship on affect and scholarship on texts have come to inform one another over the past few decades The result has been that explorations of how texts address elicit shape and dramatize affect have become central to contemporary work in literary film and art criticism as well as in critical theory rhetoric performance studies and aesthetics Guiding readers to the variety of topics themes interdisciplinary dialogues and sub disciplinary specialties that the study of interplay between affect and texts has either inaugurated or revitalized the handbook showcases and engages the diversity of scholarly topics approaches and projects that thinking of affect in relation to texts and related media open up or enable These include but are not limited to investigations of what attention to affect brings to established methods of studying texts in terms of period genre cultural contexts rhetoric and individual authorship Prehistories of the War on Terror A. J. Yumi Lee, Karen R. Miller, 2024-09-24 Reveals fundamental continuities between the contemporary War on Terror and earlier U S imperial conflicts Prehistories of the War on Terror examines the longstanding American project of classifying enemies who challenge U S power abroad as terrorists To do so the volume brings disparate episodes of U S military empire building into dialogue across time and space From settler colonial wars in the nineteenth century American West to twentieth century wars of conquest in Asia and the Pacific the collection's essays argue that the United States has drawn both materially and ideologically on older systems of empire in the conflicts through which it has waged the present day War on Terror Attending to the local histories from which these conflicts emerged and examining the effects of U S intervention in these sites contributors analyze the cultural frameworks for understanding and remembering past conflicts that confirm challenge or refigure the logics of the War on Terror This volume reveals how contestations over sovereignty extraction and inequality must be suppressed and flattened in public discourse to maintain a coherent vision of a totalizing War on Terror Together the contributors illustrate that there was no single road that led to 9 11 or the War on Terror Rather they argue that we must follow multiple paths into the past to fully understand our present and to fight for a more just future Contributors Moustafa Bayoumi Joo Ok Kim Janne Lahti A J Yumi Lee Naveed Mansoori Karen R Miller Kalyan Nadiminti Tim Roberts Colleen Woods The Digital Humanities

Review of Books - Quarterly Journal Fall 2015 Tom Lutz,2016-01-19 The Los Angeles Review of Books Quarterly Journal No Crisis issue considers the state of critical thinking and writing literary interpretation art history and cultural studies in the 21st century The last several years have been an era of crisis for the academic humanities traditionally the home of the interpretive disciplines Across the system of education in the United States there are in fact many crises For our part we see the crisis as the effect of economic and administrative decisions not a failure of ideas So we asked a group of eminent critics to choose a recent critical text and to write about why it matters not to coolly evaluate it but to stand and think with a critic whose writing they value The essays produced are works of criticism in themselves in them and with No Crisis we hope to show that the art of criticism is flourishing rich with intellectual power and sustaining beauty in hard times Los Angeles Review of Books Quarterly Journal Summer 2016 Tom Lutz,2016-10-04 The LARB Quarterly Journal Summer 2016 issue features established and award winning writers This issue highlights American poetry today with a new work from National Book Award winner Nathaniel Mackey and other outstanding poets including Peter Gizzi Readers will also discover original short fiction by rising novelist Azareen Van der Vliet Oloomi who won accolades for her debut novel Fra Keeler published through the innovative and quixotic Dorothy Project The LARB Quarterly Journal is a testament to the fact that print is
