Le Temps En Images:

Didi-Huberman and the image Chari Larsson,2020-09-29 Philosopher and art historian Georges Didi Huberman is one of the most innovative and influential critical thinkers writing today This book is the first English language study of his writing on images An image is a form of representation but what are the philosophical frameworks supporting it The book considers how Didi Huberman takes up this question repeatedly over the course of his career Placing his project in relation to major historical and intellectual contexts it shows not only how he modifies dominant disciplinary traditions but also how the study of images is central to a new way of thinking about poststructuralist inspired art history Spectacle & image in

Renaissance Europe / Spectacle & image dans l'Europe de la Renaissance Andre Lascombes,2023-08-14 This collection of nineteen essays focuses on the ways in which in England France and Spain the Renaissance made propagandistic or aesthetic use of the image in various spectacles Under surface differences between genres what emerges is a surprising similarity in tactics and response which invites further questioning about image elaboration and its reception

, The Imaginary: Word and Image ,2015-05-19 The imaginary as a critical concept originated in the twentieth century and has been theorized in diverse ways It can be understood as a register of thought the way we interpret the world the universe of images signs texts and objects of thought In this volume it is explored as it manifests itself in encounters between the verbal and the visual A number of the essays brought together here explore the transposition of the imaginary in illustrations of texts and verbal renditions of images as well as in comic books based on paintings or on verbal narratives Others analyze ways in which books deal with film or television and investigate the imaginary in digital media Special attention is paid to the imaginary of places and the relationship of the imaginary with memory Written in English and French these contributions by European and American scholars demonstrate the various concerns and approaches characteristic of contemporary scholarship in word and image studies Fulgurations Béatrice Adam,Jini Afonso,Markus A. Castor,Thomas

Rusche,Natalia Zavialova,2022-10-10 As a courageous opening of photographic self observation to the other the works of the two photographers JiniAfonso and Natalia Zavialova allow participation in the search for the self With the juxtaposition and confrontation of the two oeuvres the exhibition and catalogue create a nexus that leads to fulgurations in the communication of the photographs electrical short circuits between the images the photographers and the viewer The resulting newness a temporary third makes us aware of the subcutaneous connections with ourselves both as a reflection and as a pictorially emotional experience An Anthropology of Images Hans Belting,2022-07-12 A compelling theory that places the origin of human picture making in the body In this groundbreaking book renowned art historian Hans Belting proposes a new anthropological theory for interpreting human picture making Rather than focus exclusively on pictures as they are embodied in various media such as painting sculpture or photography he links pictures to our mental images and therefore our bodies The body is understood as a living medium that produces perceives or remembers images that are different from the images

we encounter through handmade or technical pictures Refusing to reduce images to their material embodiment yet acknowledging the importance of the historical media in which images are manifested An Anthropology of Images presents a challenging and provocative new account of what pictures are and how they function The book demonstrates these ideas with a series of compelling case studies ranging from Dante s picture theory to post photography One chapter explores the tension between image and medium in two media of the body the coat of arms and the portrait painting Another central chapter looks at the relationship between image and death tracing picture production including the first use of the mask to early funerary rituals in which pictures served to represent the missing bodies of the dead Pictures were tools to re embody the deceased to make them present again a fact that offers a surprising clue to the riddle of presence and absence in most pictures and that reveals a genealogy of pictures obscured by Platonic picture theory

Palimpsestic Memory Max Silverman,2013-02-01 The interconnections between histories and memories of the Holocaust colonialism and extreme violence in post war French and Francophone fiction and film provide the central focus of this book It proposes a new model of palimpsestic memory which the author defines as the condensation of different spatio temporal traces to describe these interconnections and defines the poetics and the politics of this composite form In doing so it is argued that a poetics dependent on tropes and techniques such as metaphor allegory and montage establishes connections across space and time which oblige us to perceive cultural memory not in terms of its singular attachment to a particular event or bound to specific ethno cultural or national communities but as a dynamic process of transfer between different moments of racialized violence and between different cultural communities The structure of the book allows for both the theoretical elaboration of this paradigm for cultural memory and individual case studies of novels and films

Spectacle & Image in Renaissance Europe André Lascombes,1993 This collection of nineteen essays focuses on the ways in which in England France and Spain the Renaissance made propagandistic or aesthetic use of the image in various spectacles Under surface differences between genres what emerges is a surprising similarity in tactics and response which invites further questioning about image elaboration and its reception

No Power Without an Image Libby Saxton,2020-09-25 The first detailed study of what filmic images can tell us about iconic photographs No Power Without an Image reveals the multifaceted connections between seven celebrated photographs of political struggles taken between 1936 and 1968 and cinema in all its forms Moving from the paper cinema of magazines via newsreels and film journals to documentary fiction and experimental films this fascinating book draws on original archival research and multidisciplinary icon theory to explore new ways of thinking about the confluence of still and moving images

Striking Images, Iconoclasm Past and Present Stacy Boldrick, Leslie Brubaker, Richard S. Clay, 2013 This study explores how and why people have made and modified images and other cultural material from pre history into the 21st century By juxtaposing objects and places usually considered in isolation provocative questions are raised about our understandings of cross cultural differences and the value of representational objects The book examines themes such as violence punishment memory and intentionality and breaks new ground by including contributions from archaeologists curators and museum conservators as well as from historians of art literature and religious studies

Reading Images and Seeing Words , 2021-11-01 The simultaneously tautological and oxymoronic nature of word image relations has become a subject of massive debate in the post modern period This is not only because of the increasing predominance of word image messages within our modern media saturated culture but also because intellectual disciplines are becoming increasingly sensitized to the essentially hybrid nature of the way we construct meaning in the world The essays in this volume offer an exemplary insight into both aspects of this phenomenon Focussing on both traditional and modern media theatre fiction poetry graphic art cinema the essays of Reading Images and Seeing Words are deeply concerned to show how it is according to signifying codes rhetoric poetics metaphor that meaning and knowledge are produced Not the least value of this collection is the insight it gives into the multiple models of word image interaction and the rich ambiguity of the tautological and oxymoronic relations they embody

Photo-texts Andy Stafford, 2010-01-01 What do photographs want Do they need any accompaniment in today s image saturated society Can writing inflect photography or vice versa in such a way that neither medium takes precedence Or are they in constant inexorable battle with each other Taking nine case studies from the 1990s French speaking world from France North Africa and the Caribbean this book attempts to define the interaction between non fictional written text caption essay fragment poem and photographic image Having considered three categories of intermediality between text and photography the collaborative the self collaborative and the retrospective the book concludes that the dimensions of their interaction are not simple and two fold visibility versus alongside textuality but threefold and therefore complex Thus the photo text as defined here is concerned as much with orality the demotic the popular the vernacular as it is with visual and written culture That text image collaborations give space to the spoken spectral traces of human discourse suggests that the key element of the photo text is its radical provisionality

Memory and the Moving Image Isabelle McNeill, 2010-02-28 A vital rethinking of memory and the moving image for the digital age Isabelle McNeill investigates the role of the moving image in cultural memory considering the impact of digital technologies on visual culture Drawing on an interdisciplinary range of theoretical resources and an unusual body of films and moving image works the author examines the ways in which recent French filmmaking conceptualises both the past and the workings of memory Ultimately the author argues that memory is an intersubjective process in which filmic forms continue to play a crucial role even as new media come to dominate our contemporary experience Memory and the Moving Image Introduces new ways of thinking about the relation between film and memory arising from a compelling interdisciplinary study of theories and films Subtly explores the French context while drawing theoretical conclusions with wider implications and applicability Provides detailed and illuminating close readings of varied moving image works to aid theoretical explorations Moves away from auteurist approaches examining work by canonical directors including Jean Luc Godard Chris Marker and Agn s Varda alongside that of less well known filmmakers such as Claire Simon and Yamina Benguigui Brings together thinkers such as Bergson Deleuze Bazin and Barthes with for example Rodowick and Mulvey in an engaging interweaving of theories Works considered include Jean Luc Godard s Histoire s du Cin ma 1989 98 Yamina Benguigui s MA c moires d Immigr s 1997 Chris Marker s CD ROM Immemory 1998 Claire Simon s Mimi 2003 Michael Haneke s Cach  2005 and Agn s Varda s multi media exhibition L Ale et Elle 2006
