Le Pacte Du Sang:

Le Pacte Du Sang, 1984 La participation démocratique en Afrique Mawuto R. Afan, 2001 , Spear Masters Molefi Kete Asante, Emeka Nwadiora, 2007-04-26 Spear Masters contends that in Africa there exists only one religion with a vast array of denominations African religion is expressed in a different way by each of the denominations which creates confusion for those who believe that there are more than one African religion Spear Masters presents information about some of the larger and most significant expressions of the sole African religion so that the reader will understand the relationship between God the creator and the notions of the relationship with the family and community The term spear master relates to the integrity and ethics that had to accompany the maker and user of the spear in ancient African societies The essence of religion presented in Spear Masters is the deification of one's society and nation and making sacred the traditions and rituals of the ordinary lives of the people Ils m'ont violé Masumbuko Mununguri, 2013-10 Ils m'ont violé est un récit poignant qui ne laisse pas le lecteur indifférent Face à un drame qui dure depuis des années Masumbuko Mununguri nous offre une fiction cathartique qui demeure néanmoins une invitation à l'action Comment peut-on rester les bras croisés face à tous ces morts C'est la question à laquelle le lecteur est obligé de répondre en refermant ce livre Un témoignage au nom de ceux qui sont morts et qui ne pourront pas parler Masumbuko se veut le porte-parole de ceux-là Il tire sa légitimité de sa connaissance de la région dont sa famille est originaire et qu'il visite régulièrement voilà déjà vingt ans que l'on tue dans l'indifférence générale L'ancien et le Nouveau Paulin Hountondji, 2024-11-29 Comment s'articulent en Afrique dans le domaine du savoir et du savoir-faire l'ancien et le nouveau Que savions-nous hier et que savons-nous aujourd'hui Quelle était hier quelle est aujourd'hui la part du mythe dans ce que nous croyons savoir Et comment finir dans chaque cas le noyau dur des connaissances solides et universellement valables Quels droits et quels devoirs nous reconnaissons-nous en tant qu'être humains en tant que femmes en tant qu'enfants en tant que peuples ou nations et quelle conscience avons-nous aujourd'hui de ces droits et devoirs Quel est l'impact de ce qu'on appelle aujourd'hui la mondialisation sur l'évolution du savoir du savoir-faire et de cette conscience des droits et devoirs Ces questions et d'autres qui y sont liées le présent ouvrage apporte quelques éléments de réponse C'est le résultat d'un colloque tenu à Cotonou en octobre 2006 sur le thème Savoirs traditionnels et science moderne Il est à dire la mémoire de Georg Elwert africaniste allemand disparu en 2005 dont les travaux sur le Bénin l'Afrique et le Tiers Monde restent une source d'inspiration pour beaucoup How are the old and the new expressed in the field of knowledge and know-how What did we know yesterday and what do we know today What was yesterday and what is today the mythical part in what we believe we know And how do we define in each case the core of concrete and universally valid knowledges What rights and duties do we acclaim as human beings as women as children as peoples or nations and what understanding do we today have of these rights and duties What is the impact of what we today call globalisation on the evolution of knowledge know-how and the awareness of such rights and duties To these questions and to other related ones this book provides some answers It is the result of a conference held in Cotonou in October 2006 on the theme Traditional knowledges and modern science It is dedicated to the memory of Georg Elwert a German Africanist who passed away in 2005 and whose work on Benin Africa and the Third World remains a source of inspiration for many

Living History Ana Lucia Araujo, 2009-05-05 This book focusses on the several forms of reconstructing the slave past in the present The recent emergence of the memory of slavery allows those who are or who claim to be descendents of slaves to legitimize their demand for recognition and for reparations for past wrongs Some reparation claims encompass financial compensation but very often they express the need for memorialization through public commemoration museums and monuments In some contexts presentification of the slave past has helped governments and the descendants of former masters and slave merchants to formulate public apologies For some expressing repentance is not only a means to erase guilt but also a way to gain political prestige The authors analyse different aspects of the recent phenomenon of memorializing slavery especially the practices employed to stage the slave past in both public and private spaces The essays present memory and oblivion as part of the same process they discuss reconstructions of the past in the present at different public and private levels through historiography photography exhibitions monuments memorials collective and individual discourses cyberspace religion and performance By offering a comparative perspective on the United States and West Africa as well as on Western Europe South America and the Caribbean the chapters offer new possibilities to explore the resurgence of the memory of slavery as a transnational movement in our contemporary world

Identity and Ecclesiology Stephanie A. Lowery, 2017-04-25 Questions of identity continue to intrigue theologians in Africa and African intellectuals often note communal emphases in African thought This raises the question How do ecclesiologies in Africa engage with identity concerns and how do they envision the Christian identity Stephanie Lowery argues in this book that theologians in Africa provide theological and biblical arguments regarding Christian identity that are relevant to individual Christians and ecclesiologies in all contexts She also proposes the social identity approach as a tool that can both further articulate and advance these discussions

Chitonge, 2015-01-09 In recent years Africa has undergone the longest period of sustained economic growth in the continent's history drawing the attention of the international media and academics alike This book analyses the Africa Rising narrative from multidisciplinary perspectives offering a critical assessment of the explanations given for the poor economic growth and development performance in Africa prior to the millennium and the dramatic shift towards the new Africa Bringing in perspectives from African intellectuals and scholars many of whom have previously been overlooked in this debate the book examines the construction of Africa's economic growth and development portraits over the years It looks at two institutions that play a vital role in African development providing a detailed explanation of how the World Bank and the IMF have interpreted and dealt with the African challenges and experiences The insightful analysis reveals that if Africa is rising only 20-30 per cent of Africans are aboard the rising ship and the main challenge facing the continent today is to bring on board the majority of Africans who have been excluded from growth This book makes the complex and sometimes confusing debates on Africa's economic growth experience more accessible to a wide range of readers interested in the Africa story It is essential reading for students and researchers in African Studies and will be of great interest to scholars in Development Studies Political Economy and Development Economics

[The Sociology of Colonies \[Part 2\]](#) Rene Maunier, 2013-09-05 First published in 1998 This is part II of the sociology of colonies and Volume XVIII of the twenty one in the Race Class and Social

Structure series Written ten years after part one in the language in the 1941 this part provides an introduction to the study of the conflict of manners and customs the progress of law in the colonies this is the social phenomenon of the relationship between one people and another in a distant country Imaginary Spaces of Power in Sub-Saharan Literatures and Films Alix Mazuet, 2012-04-25 This collection of essays is unlike others in the field of African studies for it is based on three very precisely delineated focal points a particular geographical region the sub Sahara specific modes of cultural production literature and cinema and a focus on works of French expression This three fold approach to exploring the relationships between power and culture in a non Western environment greatly contributes to making this book unique from a variety of perspectives African Francophone and postcolonial studies as well as cross disciplinary cultural transnational and diasporic studies Moreover the book offers deft and innovative analyses that move beyond the rhetoric of crises on the African continent we so very often hear of so as to present a critical reflection on the subject at hand that is specific to the sub Sahara and at the same time intimately linked to global culture economy and politics The authors three fold approach also presupposes that disciplinary compartmentalization increases power conflicts in academia If only in part compartmentalization is the result of antagonistic and competitive relations between specialization and multidisciplinary education This book is thus a modest attempt at presenting an alternative to excessively fixed and homogeneous academic frontiers while considering that disciplinary expertise remains a must Keeping in mind that an increasing number of scholars in Anglophone Postcolonial studies and Francophone African studies have been attempting for quite some time now to open interstices and build crossroads that can better connect them to each other keeping in mind that these scholars work at revealing mechanisms by which any antagonistic discourses can mix influence act upon or react to one another this book seeks to take a constructive step in establishing enduring grounds for multidisciplinary cross disciplinary and transnational academic research and collaboration La littérature béninoise de langue française Adrien Huannou, 1984-01-01
