

ADVANCING TECHNOLOGY ONE WOMAN AT A TIME

Sample of a Winning Nomination for the WIT Leadership Awards

Please note that the nominee name (Jane Doe) and her company (Great-Company) have been changed for privacy.*

Please provide detailed answers to the following questions. Each question will be weighed equally in the selection process. NOTE: Please provide a detailed description of the applicable attributes for the nominee. The nomination document should not be a resume.

1. Advancing Women in Technology from the Classroom to the Boardroom:

Please detail how the nominee is an exemplary role model/advocate. How has she used her leadership skills to act as a mentor or advocate to empower others? How has she helped to develop future leaders in her profession and /or community? (Worth 30% of Final Score)

Consider the following:

- Mentors others above, below and at the nominee's career level
- Develops future leaders in her profession and/or community
- Advocates for others and makes things happen in their careers

Please enter your response to Item 1. Limit 200 words

At Great-Company, STEM is a philanthropic priority. Jane Doe is a key contributing member to both the Great-Company Foundation and Great-Company's Corporate Responsibility Program. She is the ultimate dedicated employee that wears multiple hats and gets things done. She assists in company strategies around empowering young girls in their educational endeavors and has assisted with large charitable contributions to organizations like Girls Who Code. An example of a project Jane Doe led focusing on advocating for young women and empowering them through education was the Global Girl Rising Screening. Jane Doe led the project which was a 3-day, follow the sun, global screening of the 40 minute Girl Rising film at 3 Great-Company locations in the US, Europe and India. Each screening included both local and virtual participants. The agendas included introduction by Great-Company executives, the film screening, followed by a Q&A session allowing participants to share ways they have helped support in the education of girls and young women. The program closed with a global call to action and an opportunity to use a hashtag to tweet out ideas and intentions. There were hundreds of participants at every session, (including Girl Scouts teams) and Great-Company is considering duplicating the project annually.

2. Empowering Women to be Architects of Change in the Technology Industry:

Please detail the nominee's leadership achievements and style. How has she demonstrated an ability to create a vision for her teams? How has she motivated and mentored employees and team members to achieve success? What achievements would qualify as "pioneering" efforts? In what way has she been an architect of change in the technology community? (Worth 30% of Final Score)
