Boating ,2000-02 Boating ,2000-04 Boating ,1992-01 The Rise and Fall of the French Air Force Greg Baughen,2018-04-17 On 10 May 1940 the French possessed one of the largest air forces in the world On paper it was nearly as strong as the RAF Six weeks later France had been defeated For a struggling French Army desperately looking for air support the skies seemed empty of friendly planes In the decades that followed the debate raged Were there unused stockpiles of planes Were French aircraft really so inferior Baughen examines the myths that surround the French defeat He explains how at the end of the First World War the French had possessed the most effective air force in the world only for the lessons learned to be forgotten Instead air policy was guided by radical theories that predicted air power alone would decide future wars Baughen traces some of the problems back to the very earliest days of French aviation He describes the mistakes and bad luck that dogged the French efforts to modernise their air force in the twenties and thirties He examines how decisions made just months before the German attack further weakened the air force Yet defeat was not inevitable If better use had been made of the planes that were available the result might have been different Boating ,1994-07 Boating
