For those praying the clock, this is the 2 p.m. hour.

Prayer Focus: Today we pray for all who are voting, both clergy and laity. Much work will be done in committee. That which is supported by the committees will be sent to the Conference for action. All who vote are left to their own conscience as fueled by the Holy Spirit.

"And I will give them singleness of heart and put a new spirit within them. I will take away their stony, stubborn hearts and give them tender, responsive hearts, so they will obey my decrees and regulations. Then they will truly be my people, and I will be their God."

- Ezekiel 11: 19-20

Prayer:

Lord, grant us the tender, responsive hearts you talk about rather than our stony, stubborn ones which insist on our own ways. We often resist you and sometimes don't want to hear what you have to say. Jesus, please forgive us. By your Holy Spirit, give us this singleness of heart which wants to obey you and do your will. We want to be yours forever and ever. Jesus, we praise your name! Amen.

Methodist Meeting Devotionals:

Methodist Devotion Gordon S. Wakefield, 2018-06-26 This term Christian Spirituality has become very fashionable but requires definition It derives from one of the classifications habitual to the Church of Rome and formulated by M I Abb Pourrat in his La Spiritualité Chrétienne He distinguishes between Dogmatic Moral and Spiritual Theology and the greatest of these is Spiritual Theology which is based upon the others but is above them in so far as it is a branch of the science which deals not with abstract statements of faith and objective laws of conduct but with the life in Christ itself the reality of that union with Him which all traditions in some form would assert as the meaning of our salvation From the Preface Prayer and Devotional Life of United Methodists Steve Harper, 2013-01-15 This volume in the United Methodist Studies series challenges United Methodists to engage in life transforming practices The author explains a theme and underscores major emphases within the United Methodist denomination This adult study is divided into four sections with suggestions for group discussion and can be completed in 4 to 8 sessions No leader's guide is needed The sections are 1 Living from the Heart This chapter examines the essence of prayer and devotional life for United Methodists holiness of heart and life The chapter is divided into two sections to enable this examination Cimmunion heart and Compassion life 2 Read and Pray Daily Exploring these two central disciplines in Christian formation and the Wesleyan Tradition guides readers into practical expressions of what it means to read devotionally lection divina and pray continually the life of prayer 3 Get Connected The idea of connectionalism is a significant part of our tradition This chapter examines this idea from two vantage points of classic formation principles and the concrete structures Wesley used in early Methodism which still contain implications for today 4 Go On The cultivation of prayer and devotional life in United Methodism is not about attainment but rather about journey This chapter examines the pilgrimage motif through the two lenses of the biblical doctrine of Christian perfection and the practical development of that message through an action reflection model of Christian formation Devotions for Warriors Mike Fisher, Joe Jared, 2009-05 A calendar year of daily devotions each paired with an anecdote from the Civil War an application or insight and a prayer The Free Methodist, 1901 The Christian Advocate, 1928 The Morning Star and Free Baptist, 1898 The Western Christian Advocate, 1897 *The Life of Rev. religious traditions vying for adherents acceptance and a prominent place in the public square from the 1630s to the 1840s The original thirteen states were home to approximately three thousand churches and more than a dozen Christian denominations including Anglicans Baptists Catholics Congregationalists Lutherans Methodists Presbyterians and Quakers A variety of other faiths also could be found including Judaism Islam traditional African practices and Native American beliefs As a result America became known throughout the world as a place where in theory if not always in practice all are free to believe and worship as they choose The featured objects include an 1814 Revere and Sons church bell from Salem the Jefferson Bible wampum beads a 1654 Torah scroll brought to the New World the only known religious text written by an enslaved African Muslim and other revelatory artifacts Together these treasures illustrate how religious ideas have shaped the country and how the treatment and practice of religion have changed over time Objects of Devotion emphasizes how religion can be understood through the objects both rare and everyday around which Americans of every generation have organized their communities and built this nation American Methodist Worship Karen B. Westerfield Tucker, 2011-04-27 This book offers a comprehensive examination of Methodist practice tracing its evolution from the earliest days up to the present Using liturgical texts as well as written accounts in popular and private sources Karen Westerfield Tucker investigates the various rites and seasons of worship in Methodism and examines them in relation to American society
