Surrender Nicholas Comfort, 2012-02-23 British industry at the start of the New Elizabethan Age was a world leader The first British jet airliner was taking to the skies the first nuclear power station was under construction at Calder Hall and British firms were pioneering the computer Our shipyards reigned almost supreme and from Britain s factories came cars lorries buses heavy machinery aircraft and locomotives exported all over the world Sixty years on many of these industries and millions of jobs have disappeared while competitors have flourished Much of what remains is under foreign ownership Britain has lost many export markets and essential goods have to be imported How did all this happen Britain s loss of competitiveness has traditionally been blamed on outdated working practices failure to invest and modernise poor management bloody minded unions the loss of Empire and the ability of post war Germany and Japan to rebuild from scratch All this is true but the picture is far more complex The role of Whitehall and successive governments Britain s relationship with Europe corporate greed misjudgement and even suicide and sheer bad luck all play a part In Surrender Nicholas Comfort revisits the past six decades and identifies some of the factors behind the greatest mass extinction since the dinosaurs

Waltzing with Bashir Raya Morag,2013-09-25 Waltzing with Bashir proposes a new paradigm for cinema trauma studies the trauma of the perpetrator

Recognizing a current shift in interest from the trauma suffered by victims to that suffered by perpetrators the book seeks to theorize this still under studied field thus breaking the repression of this concept and phenomenon in psychoanalysis and in cinema literature Taking as a point of departure the distinction between testimony given by the victim and confession made by the perpetrator this pioneering work ventures to define and analyze perpetrator trauma in scholarly representational literary and societal contexts In contrast to the twentieth century definition of the perpetrator based on modern wars and totalitarian regimes Morag defines the perpetrator in the context of the twenty first century s new wars and democratic regimes The direct result of a drastic transformation in the very nature of war made manifest by the lethal clash between soldier and civilian in a battlefield newly defined in bodily terms the new trauma paradigm stages the trauma of the soldier turned perpetrator thus offering a novel perspective on issues of responsibility and guilt Such theoretical insights demonstrate that the epistemology of the post witness era requires breaking deep seated psychological and psychiatric as well as cultural and political repression Driven by the emergence of a new wave of Israeli documentary cinema Waltzing with Bashir analyzes the Israeli film and literature produced in the aftermath of the second Intifada As Ari Folman s Waltz with Bashir and other new wave films demonstrate Israeli cinema attached on one side to the legacy of the Holocaust and on the other to the Israeli Occupation is a highly relevant case for probing the limits of both victim and perpetrator traumas and for revisiting and recontextualizing the crucial moment in which the victim perpetrator cultural symbiosis is dismantled 2013 Passenger Car Yearbook Automotive Engineering International,2013-10-07 Each year car manufacturers release new production models that are unique and innovative The production model is the result of a lengthy process of testing aerodynamics safety engine components and vehicle styling The new technologies introduced in these vehicles reflect changing standards as well as trends of the market From Acura to Volvo this book provides a snapshot of the key engineering concepts and trends of the passenger vehicle industry over the course of a year For each of the 43 new production models articles from Automotive Engineering International AEI magazine detail technology developments as well as a comprehensive look at the 2013 passenger car models This book provides those with an interest in new vehicles with all the information on the key automotive engineering and technology advancements of the year AEI s association with SAE International guarantees that these articles come from a trusted and reliable source with a reputation 100 plus years in the making The 2013 Passenger Car Yearbook features articles covering a wide variety of topics from styling safety testing hybrid systems powertrain designs lightweighting and materials Interviews with key designers and engineers offer the reader an in depth look at the strategies behind the year s technology advancements This yearbook is a must read to any vehicle enthusiast or engineer The 2013 Passenger Car Yearbook explores where automotive engineering and styling is heading in years to come and where it has come from in the past The New York Times Index ,1928 East Kent Road Car Company Ltd Richard Wallace,2016-02-29 East Kent Road Car Company Ltd A Century of Service 1916 2016 celebrates one hundred years of a bus operation that is still very much recognizable for its origins Unlike so many proud names that have disappeared in recent times the old identity of East Kent Road Car Co Ltd is still carried as the legal lettering on the Stagecoach owned buses operating in the area today This book takes the reader on a journey through those one hundred years It covers the initial developments of the 1920s and 30s the challenges of World War II the halcyon days of the 1950s and the descent into the economic struggles of the 1960s Nationalization and an eventual move back into the private sector are also covered finishing with a description of the innovative approach to new services developed by the local Stagecoach management today With over two hundred illustrations both black and white and colour many previously unpublished this book provides a wide ranging historical and pictorial record of the buses artefacts and operations of the East Kent Road Car Company Fully illustrated with over 200 colour and black white illustrations many previously unpublished Lemon-Aid New and Used Cars and Trucks 1990-2016 Phil Edmonston, 2015-11-21 This book steers buyers through the the confusion and anxiety of new and used vehicle purchases unlike any other car and truck book on the market Dr Phil Canada s best known automotive expert for more than forty five years pulls no punches
