Boggs, 2022-11-25 When talking pictures first appeared in cinema theaters in the late 1920s films about newspaper journalists quickly became a Hollywood mainstay. These were a variety of responses from working reporters, editors, and photographers. The newspaper film was a popular genre in the 1950s and famous films such as All the President's Men 1976 and Spotlight 2015 have depicted the power of the press. Journalists have also been portrayed in films that are not specifically about newspapers appearing in noir films like Woman on the Run 1950 Westerns such as Fort Worth 1951 comedies like The Ghost and Mr. Chicken 1966 musicals like Wake Up and Live 1937 and historical epics like Lawrence of Arabia 1962. A film historian and former newspaper writer, the author investigates how accurately films have portrayed journalists across the decades. The book also details what journalists thought of the depictions at the time, contributing to brief histories and analyses for each film. Featured journalist archetypes include airy reporters, screaming editors, photographers, sportswriters, and war journalists. Classics, misfires, Westerns, obscure treasures, and films the press both adored and detested are all included in this comprehensive history.      Books and Pamphlets, Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals Library of Congress. Victimization and Fear of Crime Richard Block, 1984      Managing Policy and Reform in an Era of American Police Conflict Jack St. Hilaire, 2023-08-11 The Greek philosopher Socrates posed a guardian model that would protect his Athenian world: the custodes, watchmen, yet mused, who would guard them but themselves. In The Republic, Plato spoke favorably about the guardians of the republic; they should be trusted to behave and perform their duties appropriately without oversight. Half a millennium later, the Roman satirist Juvenal proposed that men who feared their wives' infidelity could neither trust them nor the guardians who guarded them. Similarly, James Madison opposed oppression through blind trust and thus conceptualized Madisonian Democracy: Quis custodiet ipsos custodies. Who will guard the guardians? In an era of conflict with America's police and the communities they serve today, publicly expressed attitudes toward law enforcement often reflect Socrates' dilemma and the concerns of Juvenal more than that of Plato's tributes. Contemporary debates concerning the increase in violent crime and the need for fundamental changes to American policing reached a new intensity and stalemate with the death of George Floyd in Minneapolis in May 2020. Police officers shot and killed 999 people in 2019 and 1021 people in 2020 in the United States. 2020 was also one of the deadliest years for law enforcement with 264 officers killed, the highest since 1974. In the first six months of 2021, 523 civilians were shot and killed by officers. Numerous active and former police officers face criminal charges for the January 6 United States Capitol Attack in Washington, DC, in 2021. Many current and former employees of the U.S. Border Patrol were discovered to be members of a Facebook group that posted racist and anti-immigration content. Sixty current members were found to have committed misconduct by posting explicit and violent messages mocking migrants and threatening lawmakers on the site. Communities are now hiring civilians

to high positions in the police department s command staff justifying the need to improve deteriorating community relations For the first time in its 27 years of measuring confidence in the police in the United States Gallup found that most American adults do not trust law enforcement This book investigates and exposes the complex challenges facing law enforcement leaders and government officials with police reform policies and standards police accreditation and police legitimacy in the eyes of the community Through informative and educational discussions with law enforcement leaders from various agencies professional police organizations and academic researchers the book qualitatively evaluates individual autonomy organizational culture and political environments which influence strategic decisions made on policy and reform efforts by law enforcement officials in the United States within the milieu of national police accreditation Texas Trade Review and Industrial Record ,1915 Psychology ,1931 Endless Holocausts David Michael Smith,2023 The U S Empire has relied upon an almost unimaginable loss of life from its inception during the European colonial period to the present And yet in the face of a series of endless holocausts at home and abroad the doctrine of American exceptionalism has plagued the globe for over a century In Endless Holocausts author David Michael Smith demolishes the myth of exceptionalism by demonstrating that manifold forms of mass death far from being unfortunate exceptions to an otherwise benign historical record have been indispensable in the rise of the wealthiest and most powerful imperium in the history of the world At the same time Smith points to an extraordinary history of resistance by Indigenous peoples people of African descent people in other nations brutalized by U S imperialism workers and democratic minded people around the world determined to fight for common dignity and the sake of the greater good Back cover
