Functions Of Newspaper Headlines:

Truth to Tell John Morley,1998-01-01 The Function of Newspapers in Society Shannon E. Martin,David A. Copeland,2003-06-30 The demise of the newspaper has long been predicted Yet newspapers continue to survive globally despite competition from radio television and now the Internet because they serve core social functions in successful cultures Initial chapters of this book provide an overview of the development of modern newspapers Subsequent chapters examine particular societies and geographic regions to see what common traits exist among the uses and forms of newspapers and those artifacts that carry the name newspaper but do not meet the commonly accepted definition The conclusion suggests that newspapers are of such core value to a successful society that a timely and easily accessible news product will succeed despite or perhaps because of changes in reading habits and technology Phraseological Substitutions in Newspaper Headlines Sylvia Jaki,2014-07-15 The major purpose of newspaper headlines is to trigger the reader s interest A popular way to achieve this goal is the use of phraseological modifications Based on previous findings from various linguistic disciplines this book provides an interdisciplinary approach to shed light on the reception of substitutions like More than Meats the Eye It develops an empirical methodology for investigating the complex cognitive processes involved using a large sample of authentic examples for illustration Along these lines this volume not only shows what associations readers make when they encounter a lexical substitution and what factors facilitate the recognition of the canonical form It also addresses the question of how meaning is constructed in terms of Conceptual Integration Theory and establishes an experimentally supported model of interpretation This multifaceted perspective renders Phraseological Substitutions in Newspaper Headlines More than Meats the Eye relevant to scholars and advanced students from a wide range of linguistic areas such as phraseology cognitive linguistics psycholinguistics and humour research but also to interested journalists The Language of Newspapers Danuta Reah,2002 From the ideological bias of the press to the role of headlines in newspaper articles and ways in which newspapers relate to their audience the book provides a comprehensive analysis of newspaper language Civics and Government James Dick,Jeffrey Blais,Peter Moore,1996 Is economic freedom a necessary condition for political freedom What can the government do about unemployment Why would governments limit international trade Students use questions such as these to help them make essential connections between economics and civics government

News Values from an Audience Perspective Martina Temmerman,Jelle Mast,2020-12-11 This book focuses on journalistic news values from an audience perspective The audience influences what is deemed newsworthy by journalists not only because journalists tell their stories with a specific audience in mind but increasingly because the interaction of the audience with the news can be measured extensively in digital journalism and because members of the audience have a say in which stories will be told The first section considers how thinking about news values has evolved over the last fifty years and puts news values in a broader perspective by looking at news consumers preferences in different countries worldwide

The second section analyses audience response explaining how audience appreciation and clicking behaviour informs headline choices and is measured by algorithms Section three explores how audiences contribute to the creation of news content and discusses mainstream media's practice of recycling audience contributions on their own social media channels

News Discourse Monika Bednarek, Helen Caple, 2018-10-19 Now reissued and retypeset this canonical book explores the role of language and images in newspaper radio online and television news The authors introduce useful frameworks for analysing language image and the interaction between the two and illustrate these with authentic news stories from around the English speaking world ranging from the Oktoberfest to environmental disasters to the killing of Osama bin Laden This analysis persuasively illustrates how events are retold in the news and made newsworthy through both language and image This clearly written and accessible introduction to news discourse is essential reading for students lecturers and researchers in linguistics media and journalism studies and semiotics

Headline Writing Sunil Saxena, 2006-02-13 The importance of a headline for a news item hardly needs to be emphasized It is perhaps the single most important factor that draws the reader's attention to a story Thus while writing a compelling headline is a priority for anyone working on a news desk this task is not easy to accomplish This book treats headline writing as a craft that can be learnt a skill that can be honed and perfected It examines in detail the basic elements of a headline and explains the best way to assemble them in order to write an arresting one Sunil Saxena carefully examines the different kinds of headlines and the advantages and disadvantages of each style of writing The book instructs the reader in The functions of a headline The way to write a headline The different kinds of headlines The do's and don'ts of headline writing The author also focuses on writing headlines for the Internet a skill that is essential in the age of new media and technology The book is well illustrated by examples and images from newspapers and news magazines All these have been taken from the Indian media so that readers can relate to the subject more easily Exercises and highlighted points at the end of each chapter are useful tools for students of journalism to whom this book will appeal primarily It will be equally useful for professional journalists

Early Modern English News Discourse Andreas H. Jucker, 2009 Printbegründer Der kan printes 10 sider ad gangen og max 40 sider pr session

The Wedding Report Hans-Jürg Suter, 1993-01-01 Traditional text types or genres are complex linguistic sociocultural and cognitive phenomena that can only be analysed in flexible interdisciplinary frameworks fusing structural and process oriented approaches and combining quantitative description with qualitative interpretation and evaluation The theoretical and methodological implications of the prototypical text type concept which is developed in this book are explored in an exhaustive case study of a representative ie prototypical genre the wedding report a conventional type of news report published in local English newspapers The distinctive contextual and textual features situational context text production processes function thematic structure and form on the macro and microlevel are analysed synchronically and diachronically The linguistic findings are integrated into a comprehensive view of the interplay between the genre as a linguistic frame and its sociocultural context

The study puts special emphasis on addressing the methodological problems arising from the inherent fuzziness of traditional text types and can thus serve as a detailed working model of genre analysis designed to be adapted to the specific requirements of similar studies

Discourse, Media, and Conflict Innocent Chilwa, 2022-04-28 Bringing together contributions from a team of international scholars this pioneering book applies theories and approaches from linguistics such as discourse analysis and pragmatics to analyse the media and online political discourses of both conflict and peace processes By analysing case studies as globally diverse as Germany the USA Nigeria Iraq Korea and Libya and across a range of genres such as TV news channels online reporting and traditional newspapers the chapters collectively show how news discourse can be powerful in mobilizing public support for war or violence or for conflict resolution through the linguistic representation of certain groups It explores the consequences of this framing effect and shows how peace journalism can be achieved through a non violent approach to reporting conflict It will therefore serve as an essential resource for students scholars and experts in media and communication studies conflict and peace studies international relations linguistics and political science
