Marketing Communications Management Paul Copley, 2014-09-24 Praise for the first edition: An excellent text for exploring marketing communications in the 21st century. Ann Torres, Lecturer in Marketing, National University of Ireland Galway. First rate and comprehensive. This book has got it just right: a rich blend of academic underpinning and practical examples in a very readable style. Martin Evans, Senior Teaching in Marketing, Cardiff Business School, University of Cardiff. This book introduces the core components and concepts of marketing communications for those studying at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels. It covers essential topics such as advertising, direct marketing, corporate communications, public relations, product placement, sales promotion, social media, sponsorship and many more. The author provides a set of managerial frameworks that include analysis, planning and implementation to help prepare those who go on to strategically create and effectively manage marketing communications campaigns. Every chapter includes snapshots that help you to apply theory to engaging real world examples. These include BMW, Harrods, Levi's, Lynx, Tesco, Tencent, United Colors of Benetton and Wonga. Additionally, Stop Points encourage you to pause and critically reflect upon the topic for deeper learning and higher grades. The Assignment boxes invite you to test your knowledge in the form of a task based on what you have just read to also help push yourself further. The Companion Website includes longer case studies, video feeds and other useful web links, a larger glossary of key terms and links to SAGE journal articles. Password protected resources are also available to lecturers including PowerPoint slides, a tutor manual, activities for the classroom and indicative responses to the assignments and discussion questions provided in each chapter.

Synchronized Factories Juan S. Blyde, 2014-09-15 The objective of this report is to examine the extent to which countries in Latin America and the Caribbean participate in global value chains and what are the drivers of such participation Production processes have been increasingly fragmented worldwide For example the production of the Boeing 787 Dreamliner involves 43 suppliers located in 135 locations around the globe There are many examples like the Dreamliner from the 451 parts that go into the iPod to the less technologically intensive but still widespread multi country production of a Barbie doll All this reflects significant changes in the way world production is being reorganized across national borders That is for many goods production has become a multi country process in which different stages are carried out in specialized plants in different parts of the world Countries which specialize in different stages of the production process are thus linked by these global value chains For developing countries a clear opportunity from the continuous international fragmentation of production arises in the form of participating in activities that were virtually not opened to them in the past Therefore the international fragmentation of production provides opportunities for trade diversification an issue that can be of particular importance for Latin America and the Caribbean as the region's export base is in general highly concentrated in a few industries and particularly biased towards natural resource intensive sectors. The aim is to identify whether there is policy space for implementing strategies that allow countries to improve their position in regional and global value chains.
