Himalayan Cities Settlement Patterns Public Places And Architecture:

Himalayan Cities Pratyush Shankar, 2014 Himalayan Cities Settlement Patterns Public Places and Architecture explores the idea of settlements in different areas of the Himalayan region cutting across national boundaries from Kashmir via Nepal to the north eastern parts of the Indian subcontinent and their relationship with the landscape By comparing these the book makes the case for peculiarities of the Himalayan city and succeeds in deducing key principles and general models typical of the settlement patterns nature of public places and architecture shaped by this unique mountainous environment The relationship between natural systems and human ingenuity as projected through its built traditions forms the underlying theme of the book Lavishly illustrated with stunning photographs and detailed hand drawings by the author and his students Himalayan Cities not only engages the academia but also the general reader and helps provoke a discourse on this intriguing landscape and its architectural nuances

Architectural Conservation in Asia John H. Stubbs, Robert G. Thomson, 2016-11-10 At a time when organized heritage protection in Asia is developing at a rapid pace Architectural Conservation in Asia provides the first comprehensive overview of architectural conservation practice from Afghanistan to the Philippines The country by country analysis adopted by the book draws out local insights experiences best practice and solutions for effective cultural heritage management that will inform study and practice both in Asia and beyond Whereas architectural conservation in much of the Western world has been extensively documented this book brings together coverage of many regions where architectural conservation has been understudied Following on from the highly influential companion volumes on global architectural conservation and architectural conservation in Europe and the Americas with this book the authors extend their pioneering global examination to the dynamic and evolving field of architectural conservation in Asia Throughout the book the authors and regional experts provide local case studies and profile topics that bring depth and insight to this ambitious study As architectural conservation becomes increasingly global in practice this book will be of considerable assistance to architectural conservation practitioners site managers and students of architecture planning archaeology and heritage studies worldwide

History of Urban Form of India Pratyush Shankar, 2023-09-15 India is undergoing massive urbanization The future form of Indian cities in terms of urban planning and design is most urgent A study of the key historical moments from the point of view of urban development is thus important With case studies from the time cities originated in the Indian subcontinent and hand drawn illustrations of these cities till the ones in recent times the author discusses the last two hundred years of urban development in India with emphasis on the overall structure of the city its nature of public places institutions and housing

Resilient and Responsible Smart Cities Hugo Rodrigues, Tomohiro Fukuda, Simon Elias Bibri, 2022-07-22 This book gathers current research studies which explore new technologies in architecture and urban practices which ensure the efficient management of cities infrastructures and provide new solutions to the complex complications that may result in the tackling of challenges of population density traffic planning and city planning at the neighborhood scale or rather the scale of buildings and everyday life It offers a path towards city resilience and sustainable infrastructure with the aim of meeting the demands of mega cities The primary audience of this book will be academics and professionals from the fields of architecture urban planning civil engineering computer sciences and mathematics The book will aid them in their contributions to the implementation of sustainable development goals A

People's History of the Farmers' Movement, 2020-2021 Shamsher Singh, Sabah Siddiqui, 2024-09-30 In the annals of India's history a monumental uprising unfolded in 2020 echoing the resilience and coming together of large sections of its agrarian base Instigated by the contentious farm laws of 2020 the Farmers Movement burgeoned into a year long saga of protest and perseverance ending only in December 2021 after the passing of the Farm Laws Repeal Bill 2021 by the Indian Parliament From the initial demand for law repeal to the multifaceted growth of the movement the book traces the journey of the Farmers Movement as each essay dissects the socio political dynamics cultural nuances and mass solidarity that underpinned the protests including focused analyses from Delhi Punjab Haryana Uttar Pradesh Rajasthan Maharashtra and the Sikh diaspora in the United Kingdom This anthology chronicles the ebb and flow of a nation's spirit encapsulating the symbiotic relationship between theory and praxis between change and continuity It serves as a testament to the power of collective resistance and a roadmap for future struggles ensuring that the legacy of the Farmers Movement endures beyond the pages of history This volume is an interdisciplinary project and will be of interest to scholars from diverse fields such as economics sociology public policy political science history political geography gender studies cultural studies international studies architecture media studies psychology and ethnomusicology Nepal Culture Shift! Madhu Raman Acharya, 2002

Encyclopedia of World Problems and Human Potential , 1986 Encyclopedia of World Problems and Human Potential Union of International Associations, 1991 A sourcebook of information on over 13 000 recognized world problems their perceived interconnections and the organizational human resources available to analyze challenge and respond to them The problems have been compiled from governmental and non governmental sources Himalayan Architecture Ronald M. Bernier, 1997 This broad treatment of architecture throughout the region of the Himalaya mountains is the first book of its kind The author has based this study on many years of research in Nepal Sikkim Bhutan Assam and the Darjeeling area of northeast India northern Pakistan and Himachal Pradesh in India's northwest These areas make up an artistic and to some degree a cultural unit It is unique and definable for its design qualities as well as its use of materials Dramatic and lofty structures rise as towering palaces and as temples dedicated to Hindu and Buddhist ideals The impact of neighboring Tibet and India is often evident in the art but other influences are found as well The area has not been isolated as some studies suggest but was in fact always linked to the rest of Asia and to the West by means of the Silk Road at least since the second century B C This study progresses from east to west beginning in the foothills of India's Assam It is richly illustrated with photographs most of which are the author's or his wife's and many of the photographs are published here for the first time

The archives of the Archaeological Survey of India and the Department of Archaeology of His Majesty's Government of Nepal are also used here Himalayan Vernacular Carl Pruscha, 2004 For ten years Austrian architect Carl Pruscha was stationed in Shangri la or as close as you can get to it The UNESCO consultant for regional planning in Nepal from 1964 to 1974 he presided over the opening of Nepal Bhutan and Tibet to the rest of the world and in this passionate Pruscha manifesto illustrated with his own photographs argues for preservation of vernacular architecture
