of Fashion Designers of America's inaugural Stylist Award in 2022. Now for the first time ever, Law shares the secrets of his approach. With How to Build a Fashion Icon, he takes readers behind the scenes of his process and journey, revealing his tips, tricks, and most memorable styling moments to show readers how to live their most iconic and fashionable lives. Part self-help guide, part manifesto, this book guides readers step by step through that process, and along the way, Law weaves in personal anecdotes from his childhood in the Southside of Chicago to the first time he styled Zendaya, with practical exercises to help readers cultivate the most essential feature of iconic style: confidence.

The Campus Cure Marcia Morris, 2018-01-02 Did you know that one of four college students was diagnosed with a mental health disorder in the last year? College students are experiencing anxiety, depression, alcohol abuse, and other mental health issues at alarming rates in a landscape of growing academic, social, and financial pressures. As a college mental health psychiatrist for over two decades and a mother of two, twenty-somethings, Marcia Morris has witnessed the ways problems can derail students from their goals, while parent interventions at critical junctures can help get students back on track. The Campus Cure: A Parent Guide to Mental Health and Wellness for College Students is a first aid guide to your child's emotional health, preparing you to handle the mental health problems and emotional ups and downs many young adults experience in college. With anecdotes and the latest scientific literature, this book will increase your awareness of common problems, pressures, and crises in college, illustrate how you can support your child, and collaborate with campus resources, and provide stories of hope to parents who often feel alone and overwhelmed when their child experiences a mental health problem. While you have the passion to help your child, this book will provide you with the tools to guide your child toward health and happiness in the college years.

Clementine Hunter Art Shiver, Clementine Hunter, 2012-09-17 Clementine Hunter, 1887-1988, painted every day from the 1930s until several days before her death at age 101. As a cook and domestic servant at Louisiana's Melrose Plantation, she painted on hundreds of objects available around her: glass snuff bottles, discarded roofing shingles, ironing boards, as well as on canvas. She produced between five and ten thousand paintings, including her most ambitious work, the African House Murals. Scenes of cotton planting and harvesting, washdays, weddings, baptisms, funerals, Saturday night revelry, and zinnias depict experiences of everyday plantation life along the Cane River. More than a personal record of Hunter's life, her paintings also reflect the social, material, and cultural aspects of the area's larger African American community. Drawing on archival research, interviews, personal files, and a close relationship with the artist, Art Shiver and Tom Whitehead offer the first comprehensive biography of this self-taught painter who attracted the attention of the world. Shiver and Whitehead trace Hunter's childhood, her encounters at Melrose with artists and writers such as Alberta Kinsey and Lyle Saxon, and the role played by eccentric François Mignon, who encouraged and promoted her art. The authors include rare paintings and photographs to illustrate Hunter's creative process and discuss the evolution of her style. The book also highlights Hunter's impact on the modern art world and provides insight into a decades-long forgery operation that Tom Whitehead helped uncover. This recent attention reinforced the uniqueness of Hunter's art and confirmed her place in the international art community which continues to be inspired by the life and work of Clementine Hunter Pathways to Self-Discovery and Change Harvey B. Milkman, Kenneth W. Wanberg, 2005 Companion vol to the authors Criminal conduct and substance abuse treatment for adolescents the provider's guide Daddy, Tell Them We Don't Shoot Bambi Ollie T. Moye, 2005-03-07 Daddy Tell Them We Don't Shoot Bambi spins a true account of what one man did to introduce his sons to the basics of hunting and firearms safety resulting in major quality time during their formative years More important than tips on getting started the author underscores strengthening father son relationship The authors closeness to nature is accented as he enthusiastically paints an accurate portrait of the average hunter Included also are the agonies and disappointments of the hunt often swept aside by the hunter as well as some laugh out loud stuff hunters encounter The author offers a 53 year writing background with many published credits including hunting as well as tenure as editor of regional newspapers He is past president of the South Carolina Press Association
