A Practical Treatise on Foreign Bodies in the Air-passages Samuel David Gross, 1854 Waiting for Godot - Samuel Beckett, New Edition Harold Bloom, 2009 Presents a series of critical essays discussing the structure themes and subject matter of Samuel Beckett's Waiting for Godot Mechanical Ocular Trauma Hua Yan, 2016-10-31 This book provides state of the art information for ophthalmologists and other clinicians facing tough cases helping them to make the most appropriate decision concerning the management of patients who have suffered mechanical ocular trauma The discussion of mechanical ocular trauma addresses various parts of the eye each chapter discusses a certain part of the eye supplemented by illustrative sample cases Though the latest consensus is provided for each topic or case different opinions on controversial topics will also be discussed in detail Pearls of advice at the end of each chapter highlight its main points Topics covered include Traumatic cataract and the timing of surgery and IOL implantation Traumatic hypotony Traumatic glaucoma Timing of vitrectomy after primary repair Use of silicone oil in traumatic eyes Intraocular Foreign Bodies Traumatic endophthalmitis and much more As a topic based clinical reference work on mechanical ocular trauma bringing together consensus and controversies the book offers useful and attractive information for ophthalmologists Embodied Politics in Visual Autobiography Sarah Brophy, Janice Hladki, 2014-11-05 From reality television to film performance and video art autobiography is everywhere in today's image obsessed age With contributions by both artists and scholars Embodied Politics in Visual Autobiography is a unique examination of visual autobiography's involvement in the global cultural politics of health disability and the body This provocative collection looks at images of selfhood and embodiment in a variety of media and with a particular focus on bodily identities and practices that challenge the norm a pregnant man in cyberspace a fat activist performance troupe indigenous artists intervening in museums transnational selves who connect disability to war and many more The chapters in Embodied Politics in Visual Autobiography reflect several different theoretical approaches but share a common concern with the ways in which visual culture can generate resistance critique and creative interventions With contributions that investigate digital media installation art graphic memoir performance film reality television photography and video art the collection offers a wide ranging critical account of what is clearly becoming one of the most important issues in contemporary culture Memory Of Thought Alexander García Düttmann, 2002-12-06 A reconstruction of aspects of the philosophy of Adorno and Heidegger This title reconstructs the philosophy of Adorno and Heidegger in the light of the importance that these thinkers attach to two proper names Auschwitz and Germanien In Adorno's dialectical thinking Auschwitz is the name of an incommensurable historical event that seems to put a provisional end to history as a negative totality In Heidegger's thinking of Being Germanien is a name inscribed in an historical mission on which the fate of Western civilization seems to depend it thus becomes the name of a positive totality of history Spiritualism and Phenomenology Emmanuel Falque, 2025-04-08 The conflict between spiritualism and phenomenology will no longer take place Better it is through their encounter and their backlash that a new fruitfulness for thought will develop The case of Maine de Biran thus comes to exemplify a new beginning a la francaise for metaphysics on the one hand and for phenomenology on the other But the philosopher from Bergerac in the Dordogne is most often read according to his explicit meaning and not his implicit one He is supposedly the thinker of freedom and consciousness spiritualism or of the inner self and the lived body phenomenology But these readings forget the exceptions to the primitive fact of internal effort illness sleep sleepwalking madness the body object the outer self which mark Biran's oeuvre as one of the summits of a thought that escapes phenomenality and confers a real consistency upon corporeality A new Columbus of metaphysics as he himself names himself Maine de Biran read otherwise initiates for today a new beginning for thought

Signing the Body Katherine Dauge-Roth, 2019-11-14 The first major scholarly investigation into the rich history of the marked body in the early modern period this interdisciplinary study examines multiple forms uses and meanings of corporeal inscription and impression in France and the French Atlantic from the late sixteenth through early eighteenth centuries Placing into dialogue a broad range of textual and visual sources drawn from areas as diverse as demonology jurisprudence mysticism medicine pilgrimage commerce travel and colonial conquest that have formerly been examined largely in isolation Katherine Dauge Roth demonstrates that emerging theories and practices of signing the body must be understood in relationship to each other and to the development of other material marking practices that rose to prominence in the early modern period While each chapter brings to light the particular histories and meanings of a distinct set of cutaneous marks devil's marks on witches demon's marks upon the possessed devotional wounds Amerindian and Holy Land pilgrim tattoos and criminal brands each also reveals connections between these various types of stigmata links that were obvious to the early modern thinkers who theorized and deployed them Moreover the five chapters bring to the fore ways in which corporeal marking of all kinds interacted dynamically with practices of writing on imprinting and engraving paper parchment fabric and metal that flourished in the period together signaling important changes taking place in early modern society Examining the marked body as a material object replete with varied meanings and uses Signing the Body Marks on Skin in Early Modern France shows how the skin itself became the register of the profound cultural and social transformations that characterized this era

The Mother in the Age of Mechanical Reproduction Elissa Marder, 2012 This book analyses the relationship between the body technology and language by focusing on the uncanny figure of the mother in psychoanalysis photography and literature and contends that the concept of human birth is represented through mechanical repetition and technological modes of reproduction rather than as a natural event

Philosophy's Treason D. M. Spitzer, 2020-05-05 Philosophy's Treason Studies in Philosophy and Translation gathers contributions from an international group of scholars at different stages of their careers bringing together diverse perspectives on translation and philosophy The volume's six chapters primarily look towards translation from philosophic perspectives often taking up issues central to Translation Studies and pursuing them along philosophic lines By way of historical logical and personal reflection several chapters address broad topics of translation such as the entanglements of culture ideology politics and history in the translation of philosophic works the position of Translation Studies within current academic humanities untranslatability within philosophic texts and the ways philosophic reflection can enrich thinking on translation Two more narrowly focused chapters work closely on specific philosophers and their texts to identify important implications for translation in philosophy In a final critical postscript the volume takes a reflexive turn as its own chapters provide starting points for thinking about philosophy and translation in terms of periperformativity From philosophers critically engaged with translation this volume offers distinct perspectives on a growing field of research on the interdisciplinarity and relationality of Translation Studies and Philosophy Ranging from historical reflections on the overlap of translation and philosophy to philosophic investigation of questions central to translation to close readings of translation within important philosophic texts Philosophy s Treason serves as a useful guide and model to educators in Translation Studies wishing to illustrate a variety of approaches to topics related to philosophy and translation

Modernism and Non-translation Jason Harding, John Nash, 2019 A collection on the incorporation of untranslated fragments from other languages within modernist writing It explores non translation in modernist fiction poetry and other forms of writing by writers such as Antonin Artaud T S Eliot Henry James James Joyce Stephane Mallarme Ezra Pound Rainer Maria Rilke and William Carlos Williams
