After the Education Wars Andrea Gabor, 2018-06-12 The education wars have been demoralizing for teachers After the Education Wars helps us to see a better way forward Cathy N Davidson The New York Times Book Review After the Education Wars is an important book that points the way to genuine reform Diane Ravitch author of Reign of Error and The Death and Life of the Great American School System A bestselling business journalist critiques the top down approach of popular education reforms and profiles the unexpected success of schools embracing a nimbler more democratic entrepreneurialism In an entirely fresh take on school reform business journalist and bestselling author Andrea Gabor argues that Bill Gates Eli Broad and other leaders of the prevailing education reform movement have borrowed all the wrong lessons from the business world After the Education Wars explains how the market based measures and carrot and stick incentives informing today s reforms are out of sync with the nurturing culture that good schools foster and contrary to popular belief at odds with the best practices of thriving twenty first century companies as well These rich detailed stories of real reform in action illustrate how enduring change must be deeply collaborative and relentlessly focused on improvement from the grass roots up lessons also learned from both the open source software and quality movements The good news is that solutions born of this philosophy are all around us from Brockton Massachusetts where the state s once failing largest high school now sends most graduates to college to Leander Texas a large district where school improvement spurred by the ideas of quality guru W Edwards Deming has become a way of life A welcome exception to the doom and gloom canon of education reform After the Education Wars makes clear that what s needed is not more grand ideas but practical and informed ways to grow the best ones that are already transforming schools

The Middle and Upper Paleolithic Archeology of the Levant and Beyond Yoshihiro Nishiaki,Takeru Akazawa,2017-12-06 This volume is a compilation of results from sessions of the Second International Conference on the Replacement of Neanderthals by Modern Humans which took place between November 30 and December 6 2014 in Hokkaido Japan Similar to the first conference held in 2012 in Tokyo the 2014 conference RNMH2014 aimed to compile the results of the latest multidisciplinary approaches investigating the issues surrounding the replacement of Neanderthals by modern humans The results of the sessions supplemented by off site contributions center on the archeology of the Middle and Upper Paleolithic of the Levant and beyond The first part of this volume presents recent findings from the Levant while the second part focuses on the neighboring regions namely the Caucasus the Zagros and South Asia The 13 chapters in this volume highlight the distinct nature of the cultural occurrences during the Middle and Upper Paleolithic periods of the Levant displaying a continuous development as well as a combination of lithic traditions that may have originated in different regions This syncretism which is an unusual occurrence in the regions discussed in this volume reinforces the importance of the Levant as a region for interpreting the RNMH phenomenon in West Asia

Alternatives Pat Carlen, Leandro Ayres França, 2019-07-11 Justice is one of the most debated and reinterpreted of concepts within the fields of law criminology and criminal justice Bringing together 35 leading thinkers analysts and campaigners from around the world this collection presents a range of on going struggles for justice from abolitionist transitional transformative indigenous green and restorative perspectives Against a background of contemporary concerns about dark money plutocracies and populism these chapters raise questions about the relationships between social justice and criminal justice and between democracy knowledge and justice Overall the chapters also demonstrate the breadth variety and vibrancy of contemporary criminology and include amongst other cutting edge contributions chapters by John Braithwaite Michelle Brown Ian Loader Pat O Malley Joe Sim Susanne Karstedt Phil Scruton Richard Sparks Lo c Wacquant and Sandra Walklate Justice Alternatives is essential reading for students of criminology criminal justice and law as well as for other scholars and activists concerned about social justice policing courts imprisonment mass supervision rights and privatized justice The book s emphasis upon the importance of imagination experimentation innovation and debate aims to promote an optimism that there are always alternatives to inequality domination and oppression Postwar Laura

McEnaney, 2018-09-07 When World War II ended Americans celebrated a military victory abroad but the meaning of peace at home was yet to be defined From roughly 1943 onward building a postwar society became the new national project and every interest group involved in the war effort from business leaders to working class renters held different visions for the war s aftermath In Postwar Laura McEnaney plumbs the depths of this period to explore exactly what peace meant to a broad swath of civilians including apartment dwellers single women and housewives newly freed Japanese American internees African American migrants and returning veterans In her fine grained social history of postwar Chicago McEnaney puts ordinary working class people at the center of her investigation What she finds is a working class war liberalism a conviction that the wartime state had taken things from people and that the postwar era was about reclaiming those things with the state s help McEnaney examines vernacular understandings of the state exploring how people perceived and experienced government in their lives For Chicago s working class residents the state was not clearly delineated The local offices of federal agencies along with organizations such as the Travelers Aid Society and other neighborhood welfare groups all became what she calls the state in the neighborhood an extension of government to serve an urban working class recovering from war Just as they had made war the urban working class had to make peace and their requests for help large and small constituted early dialogues about the role of the state during peacetime Postwar examines peace as its own complex historical process a passage from conflict to postconflict that contained human struggles and policy dilemmas that would shape later decades as fatefully as had the war

The Neoliberal Diet Gerardo Otero, 2018-10-03 This remarkable comprehensive study of neoliberal agribusiness and the obesity epidemic is critical reading for food studies scholars Contemporary Sociology Obesity rates are rising across the United States and beyond While some claim that people simply eat too much energy dense food while exercising too little The Neoliberal Diet argues that the issue is larger than individual lifestyle choices Since the 1980s the shift toward neoliberal regulation has enabled agribusiness multinationals to thrive by selling a combination of meat and highly processed foods loaded with refined flour and sugars a diet that originated in the United States Drawing on extensive empirical data Gerardo Otero identifies the socioeconomic and political forces that created this diet which has been exported around the globe at the expense of people s health Otero shows how state level actions particularly subsidies for big farms and agribusiness have ensured the dominance of processed foods and made fresh foods inaccessible to many Comparing agrifood performance across several nations including the NAFTA region and correlating food access to class inequality he convincingly demonstrates the structural character of food production and the effect of inequality on individual food choices Resolving the global obesity crisis Otero concludes lies not in blaming individuals but in creating state level programs to reduce inequality and make healthier food accessible to all The

Future of HM Coastguard in Scotland Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Scottish Affairs Committee,2012-11-15 This report expresses concern about the decision to close two of Scotland s Maritime Rescue Co ordination Centres and says Government must do more to explain the rationale for the decision and how it will ensure that the same high standard of service is maintained with fewer resources Despite an extensive Government consultation those on the front line felt they had been excluded from the process There has been no satisfactory explanation for the decision to close Clyde and Forth MRCCs which will leave the central belt of Scotland where the population is most densely concentrated without a Coastguard station The Committee is particularly concerned at the loss of local knowledge resulting from the closures Both the Minister and the Chief Executive of the Maritime and Coastguard Agency have assured the Committee that robust and extensive testing was being done before the closure of Clyde Maritime Rescue Co ordination Centre to ensure that the stations taking over its area of responsibility would do so seamlessly and continue to provide the level of search and rescue cover which the public has a right to expect The Committee understands the Government s argument that the changes are intended to allow HM Coastguard to do more better with less and says it hopes that this is indeed the case The Government must keep the Committee updated on the impact of the proposed changes and provide reassurance after 31 December 2012 that the Scottish coastline is still being served to the same high standard as before
