Nitsan Chorev, 2019-12-10 Give and Take looks at local drug manufacturing in Kenya Tanzania and Uganda from the early 1980s to the present to understand the impact of foreign aid on industrial development While foreign aid has been attacked by critics as wasteful counterproductive or exploitative Nitsan Chorev makes a clear case for the effectiveness of what she terms developmental foreign aid Against the backdrop of Africa's pursuit of economic self sufficiency the battle against AIDS and malaria and bitter negotiations over affordable drugs Chorev offers an important corrective to popular views on foreign aid and development She shows that when foreign aid has provided markets monitoring and mentoring it has supported the emergence and upgrading of local production In instances where donors were willing to procure local drugs they created new markets that gave local entrepreneurs an incentive to produce new types of drugs In turn when donors enforced exacting standards as a condition to access those markets they gave these producers an incentive to improve quality standards And where technical know how was not readily available and donors provided mentoring local producers received the guidance necessary for improving production processes Without losing sight of domestic political economic conditions historical legacies and foreign aid s own internal contradictions Give and Take presents groundbreaking insights into the conditions under which foreign aid can be effective

Give and Take David Read,2022-07-06 Have you ever wondered why you think the way you do about people jobs relationships and just about anything you have ever encountered Everything you have ever experienced every thought you have thought is the direct result of what you have given to it or what you have taken from it This is the capacity of our souls to give thought and to take thought concerning all that we see hear and feel in this life God has designed us in his image and in this creation he has put within us the ability to do so In this book of Give and Take we will follow the path from salvation to warfare to peace and giving of thanks as we see that God gives us much and that much is available from him for us to take for our advantage As you discover who he is as a sovereign God you will begin to measure your life based on what you give to it and what you take from it Understanding that the principles set forth in the give and take that we apply in respect forgiveness taking captive thoughts and more as seen through the examples of David Nehemiah Daniel the Apostle John as well as others is through and by his love All we give to this life and all that we take from this life is defined by this principle of give and take Every relationship every event every moment is rendered through how we give to God and how we take from God
