Black's Picturesque guide to the English Lakes ... Eighth edition Adam BLACK (Publisher, and BLACK (Charles) Publisher.),1857 Rewriting the North Chloe Ashbridge,2023-05-15 This book shows how twenty first century writing about Northern England imagines alternative democratic futures for the region and the English nation signalling the growing awareness of England as a distinct and variegated political formation In 2016 the Brexit vote intensified ongoing constitutional tensions throughout the UK which have been developing since the devolution of Scotland Wales and Northern Ireland in 1997 At the same time British devolution developed a distinctively cultural registration as a surrogate for parliamentary representation and an attempt to disrupt the status of London as Britain's cultural epicentre Rewriting the North shifts this debate in a new direction examining Northern literary preoccupation with devolution's constitutional implications Through close readings of six contemporary authors Sunjeev Sahota Sarah Hall Anthony Cartwright Adam Thorpe Fiona Mozley and Sarah Moss this book argues that literary engagement with the North emphasises regional devolution's limited constitutional charge calling instead for an urgent abandonment of the British centralised state form

Contemporary British Novel Since 2000 James Acheson,2017-01-17 Focuses on the novels published since 2000 by twenty major British novelists The Contemporary British Novel Since 2000 is divided into five parts with the first part examining the work of four particularly well known and highly regarded twenty first century writers Ian McEwan David Mitchell Hilary Mantel and Zadie Smith It is with reference to each of these novelists in turn that the terms arealist apostmodernist ahistorical and apostcolonialist fiction are introduced while in the remaining four parts other novelists are discussed and the meaning of the terms amplified From the start it is emphasised that these terms and others often mean different things to different novelists and that the complexity of their novels often obliges us to discuss their work with reference to more than one of the terms Also discusses the works of Maggie O'Farrell Sarah Hall A L Kennedy Alan Warner Ali Smith Kazuo Ishiguro Kate Atkinson Salman Rushdie Adam Foulds Sarah Waters James Robertson Mohsin Hamid Andrea Levy and Aminatta Forna Yorkshire Mountford John Byrde Baddeley,1902 Scotland Mountford John Byrde Baddeley,1903 The Geographical Journal ,1895 Includes the Proceedings of the Royal geographical society formerly published separately The Poetics and Ethics of Attention in Contemporary British Narrative Jean-Michel

Ganteau,2022-12-27 This book uses attention as a prism through which to interrogate the literary text It starts from analyses of the changes that the mediasphere and communication technologies have brought for the contemporary subject submitting him/her to the tyranny of a new attention economy My point is that the contemporary novel and memoir resist such influences and evince a great deal of resilience by promoting an ecology of attention Cited based on poetic options whose pragmatic effect is to develop an ethics of the particularist type To do this I draw on critical and theoretical literature hailing from various fields psychology but also more prominently phenomenology political philosophy and analytical philosophy essentially Ordinary Language Philosophy alongside the ethics of care and vulnerability By using a selection of fictional and non fictional narratives I address such issues as social invisibilities climate change AI and cognitive disability and end up drafting a poetics of attention Haunted Spaces in Twenty-First Century British Nature Writing Anneke

Lubkowitz,2020-06-08 This study investigates the figure of haunting in the New Nature Writing It begins with a historical survey of nature writing and traces how it came to represent an ideal of natural space as empty of human history and social conflict Building on a theoretical framework which combines insights from ecocriticism and spatial theory the author explores the spatial dimensions of haunting and hauntology and shows how 21st century writers draw on a Gothic repertoire of seemingly supernatural occurrences and spectral imagery to portray natural space as disturbed uncanny and socially contested Iain Sinclair and Robert Macfarlane are revealed to apply psychogeography s interest in hidden histories and haunted places to spaces associated with wilderness and the countryside Kathleen Jamie s allusions to the Gothic are put in relation to her feminist re writing of the outdoors and John Burnside s use of haunting is shown to dismantle fictions of the far north This book provides not only a discussion of a wide range of factual and fictional narratives of the present but also an analysis of the intertextual dialogue with the Romantic tradition which enfolds in these texts The Publishers' Circular and General Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1859 Principles of Physical Geography Francis J.

Monkhouse,1964-01-15 This comprehensive study is concerned with the solid rocks the seas and oceans our enveloping atmosphere the soil and the green mantle of natural vegetation as they interrelate in man s physical environment The text is illustrated with many photographs and specially drawn maps and diagrams
