Autobiography

4 December 2012

My name is Maria Angelina Bacarella. I was born on March 7, 1995, in Tawas City, Michigan. My parents are James and Michelle Bacarella, and I have three younger siblings, Sophia, Alex, and Samuel. I attended Holy Family Catholic School in East Tawas from kindergarten until sixth grade. While there I participated in band, choir, Girl Scouts, Council of Catholic Girls, volleyball, softball, and basketball. I was on honor roll and received an academic achievement award. Attending a catholic school helped me to grow academically, in my faith, and as a person, giving me high moral standards. In seventh and eighth grade I attended Tawas Junior High. I was involved in volleyball, basketball, softball, and Club PRIDE. I was on honor roll every semester, and received the presidential academic award.

I currently attend Tawas High School. I am involved in Iosco Pride, Spanish club, liturgical dance, youth group, Student Senate, volleyball, soccer, and National Honor Society. I currently have a 3.88 cumulative g.p.a. and am 8th in my class of 117. Though my school, I go to coop every day for two hours in the 81st District court. While there I have learned many school that pertain to a future career in law. I file papers, type bonds, and observe court. This has given me first-hand experience identifying legal documents and understanding how to proceed in court.

The Arkansas Delta Oral History Project David A. Jolliffe, Christian Z. Goering, James A. Anderson, Krista Jones Oldham, 2016-11-10 In rural America perhaps more than other areas high school students have the ability to contribute to the revitalization and sustainability of their home communities by engaging in oral history projects designed to highlight the values that are revered and worth saving in their region The Arkansas Delta Oral History Project a multiyear collaboration between the University of Arkansas and several public high schools in small rural Arkansas towns gives students that opportunity Through the project trained University of Arkansas studentmentors work with high school students on in depth writing projects that grow out of oral history interviews The Delta a region where the religious roots of southern culture run deep and the traditions of cooking farming and hunting are passed from generation to generation provides the ideal subject for oral history projects In this detailed exploration of the project the authors draw on theories of cultural studies and critical pedagogy of place to show how students work on religion food and race exemplifies the use of community literacy to revitalize a distressed economic region Advancing the discussion of place based education The Arkansas Delta Oral History Project is both inspirational and instructive in offering a successful model of an authentic literacy program

Reader Response in Secondary and College Classrooms Nicholas J. Karolides, 2013-04-15 This text based on Louise M Rosenblatt's transactional model of literature focuses on the application of transactional reader response theory in the classroom It grows from frequent requests from secondary school and college teachers for teaching suggestions on how to put theory into practice This is not a What should I do on Monday cookbook but an expression of the practice of theory in college and secondary school classrooms The chapters portray a spectrum of strategies including biopoems expressive and imaginative writing journal writing readers theater role playing and unsent letters using as examples individual works from several genres Recognizing that teachers who may have been trained in other theories and methodologies may be hesitant about their quite different role and expectations in the reader centered classroom the authors provide stepping stones to develop readiness and confidence suggestions and insights to ease the transition to the transactional model of teaching and learning Pedagogical features An explanatory introduction to each section defines its orientation and describes the content and direction of the chapters it contains Invitations elicit engagement of readers with concepts attitudes or strategies presented in the chapters they invite readers as individuals or members of a small group to consider ideas or to practice a strategy among other activities in order to enhance understandings A glossary defines key concepts and strategies discussed in the text A bibliography provides an extensive list of resources books and journal articles both theoretical and applied New in the second edition Six new chapters three deal with the roles of film as literature in the English classroom and three with enhancing multicultural understandings Updates and revisions to several chapters that appeared in the first edition Invitations new in this edition have been added to focus and expand readers thinking

Gender Identity Cynthia L. Winfield, 2007 Using case studies as examples explains how hermaphrodites and transgendered individuals can have different gender identities than those assigned at birth and describes the legal and surgical options open to them

Gay Seattle Gary L. Atkins, 2011-10-17 Winner of a 2004 Washington State Book Award Winner of a 2004 Alpha Sigma Nu ASN Jesuit Book Award In 1893 the Washington State legislature quietly began passing a set of laws that essentially made homosexuality and eventually even the discussion of homosexuality a crime A century later Mike Lowry became the first governor of the state to address the annual lesbian and gay pride rally in Seattle Gay Seattle traces the evolution of Seattle's gay community in those 100 turbulent years telling through a century of stories how gays and lesbians have sought to achieve a sense of belonging in Seattle Gary Atkins recounts the demonization of gays by social crusaders around the turn of the century the earliest prosecutions for sodomy the official harassment and discrimination through most of the twentieth century and the medical discrimination and commitment to mental hospitals that continued into the 1970s as homosexuality was diagnosed as a disease that could be cured Places of refuge from this imposed social exile were created in underground theater and dance clubs the Gold Rush era burlesque shows modern drag theater and in mid century the emergence of openly gay bars from the Casino to Shelley's Leg Many of these were subjected to steady exploitation by corrupt police until bar owner MacIver Wells and two Seattle Times reporters exposed the racket The increasingly public presence of gays in Seattle was accompanied by the gradual coalescence of social services and self help organizations such as the Dorian Society gay businesses and advocacy groups including the Greater Seattle Business Association and the stormy relationship between the Vatican Seattle's Catholic hierarchy and gay worshippers Atkins narrative reveals the complex and often frustrating process of claiming a civic life showing how gays and lesbians have engaged in a multilayered struggle for social acceptance against the forces of state and city politics the police the media and public opinion The emergence of mainstream political activism in the 1970s and ultimately the election of Cal Anderson and other openly gay officials to the state legislature and city council were momentous events yet shadowed by the devastating rise of AIDS and its effect on the homosexual community as a whole These stories of exile and belonging draw on numerous original interviews as well as case studies of individuals and organizations that played important roles in the history of Seattle's gay and lesbian community Collectively they are a powerful testament to the endurance and fortitude of this minority community revealing the ways a previously hidden sexual minority comes out as a people and establishes a public presence in the face of challenges from within and without
