Standards for Electronic Transactions

Also referred to as Transactions, Code Sets, and Headers, defines standards for conducting electronic data interchange (EDI) transactions and related administrative (X12) and other electronic health transactions.

Standards for Privacy

Defines when a provider is not and when individually identifiable health information referred to (IIHI) as personal health information, as well as legally set individual health care information rights which includes access to one's own records, ability to file privacy complaints, ability to request health record amendments, etc.

Standards for Security

Defines Administrative, Physical, Technical and Organizational Safeguards to secure electronic PHI (ePHI).

Covered Entities

Health plans

An individual or group plan that provides, or pays the cost of, medical care. They include public and private health plans (e.g., Medicare, Medicaid, private health plans, employer-sponsored group health plans, etc.).

Health Care Providers

An entity that processes IIHI covered transactions on behalf of health plans and providers. The information may be processed in a non-standard format and transmitted via a IIHI compliant wire, and may consist of any document the exchange of standard transactions between two covered entities.

Health care providers

A provider of medical or health services as defined by HIPAA will be the General Business law and any other person or organization (business, health, or a health-related entity in the normal course of business). Excludes:

- Physicians
- Hospitals

- Dentists
- Clinics
- Pharmacies
- Laboratories
- Behavioral health specialists
- Skilled Nephrology dependent treatment providers
- Counseling services providers
- Etc.

Covered entities are required by HIPAA Act amendments effective 2003/04.

- To avoid existing business associate contracts/agreements to reflect the change requiring business associates to comply with the HIPAA security rule and certain provisions of the HIPAA privacy rule.
- To enter into business associate relationships with the new categories of business associates.
