

A Lesson Before Dying Discussion & Study Guide

Chapter 1-5

1. What details does Gaines provide to establish the identity and significance of the quarter and its history, the plantation, Bayonne, and the surrounding county?

2. What details reveal white expectations concerning blacks, black expectations concerning whites, and the resulting behavior of individuals in each group?

3. Why does Gaines begin the novel with Jefferson's trial, verdict, and sentencing but without providing the specific names of any of those involved? Does this presentation predispose us to accept what follows in a specific way?

4. What is the effect of the story's being presented (except for two instances near the novel's end) through the mind and voice of Grant Wiggins? Can Grant's narrative be relied upon, or must we look beyond him for a full understanding of the novel's action?

5. The "hog" metaphor appears throughout the novel, beginning with its first appearance in Chapter 1 what do you think its purpose and effect is?

6. In Chapter 3, Grant notices that some things in Pichot's house have changed since he—Grant—was last there as a boy, and that some things have not changed. What has changed and what has not? Does Grant's observation take in material objects only? Are there other instances in which Grant calls our attention to things that have changed or remained the same?

7. In Chapter 4, Grant poses several questions to Vivian regarding his assignment from Miss Emma and Tante Lou. Are these questions ever answered? If so, are they answered in ways that are anticipated or unanticipated?

Chapter 6-10

1. In Chapter 6, why does Pichot keep Grant waiting for "nearly two and a half hours"? Why does Grant wait? What does this scene reveal about the relationships among blacks and whites in Louisiana, the South, and the nation in the late 1940s?
