

Jesus is King! Activity

[Jesus] is Lord of lords and King of kings. Rev. 17:14

I like to teach my class about the visit of the kings after Christmas, since it is thought that the kings visited Jesus a couple of years after his birth.

After reading that story, it is a nice time to teach that Jesus is our king. Discuss with the children:

1. What is a king?
 - * A king is not elected like our president
 - * A king is king because of who his family is
 - * Jesus is our king because his Father is God
 - * A king is in charge of his kingdom. He makes the rules. He had people write the rules in the Bible
 - * Since God, with Jesus, created the world, the world is His kingdom. So He is Lord of Lords and King of kings. That means He is in charge of everything and everyone
 - * Not everyone honors Jesus as king. Does that mean He's not king? No, it doesn't!
2. What does it mean to me that Jesus is King?
 - * When we honor Him as King, we try to obey Him
 - * We are kind to others, we share, we forgive people when they are mean to us. We give money to poor people. We try to act like Jesus
3. Do the following directed-draw lesson of Jesus on the following page. The crown is already there. Children add the head, body and details. :)
