Dear Mr Henry,

I am much obliged for your letter and highly pleased with your comments on the specimens of my verse which I had sent you. Neither "The Looe Road" nor "Derry for me" has been set to music, nor have any of the others with the exception of "Derryceena". When my daughters and I were on holiday in Ireland just before the war we had Dr Annie Patterson's original setting of "Derryceena" with us, and when in Belfast took it ^a commercially published version of mine. Since receiving your letter I have been making enquiries about it, and it appears to have got mislaid. My niece, however, is making a thorough search for it and when it has turned up I will send it along. The poem was appeared in two or three papers but it has not yet been published - words and music - as a song. There is not even a copy of Dr Patterson's setting in existence so that I am particularly desirous of recovering the original.

I quite agree with you regarding the scarcity of 'locality' songs in this part of the country.
