Together with His Town Address and Country Residence Edward Walford,1864 Canadian Naturalist and Geologist and Proceedings of the Natural History Society of Montreal ,1857 The Canadian Naturalist and Geologist ,1857 A Guide to Speleological Literature of the English Language Diana E. Northup,1998 This is a family story of America s most famous cave explorer who was trapped and died in Sand Cave in 1925 That story has been told many times but never before has the complete life of Floyd Collins been presented Floyd s younger brother Homer tells how Floyd was fascinated with caves from his childhood of his discovery of the famous Crystal Cave on the home property and of the rescue attempts from the viewpoint of a brother so devoted that his extraordinary efforts to save Floyd were rewarded by his being removed from the premises while others inexperienced in working in caves carried on the unsuccessful attempt It is a warm story of a man whose love in life was exploring caves a man who endured his grim death with dignity and pride in his vocation Page 4 of cover Catalog of Copyright Entries. events and conversely recognizing the multi valent impact of theatrical performance and performativity as a reinvigoration of the immediate this study traces the emergence of realness as a textual effect and a mode of political intervention This interactive refractive nexus of experience and inscription comprises what Sandra Logan calls the text event The four primary foci of this investigation the 1558 coronation entry the 1575 entertainments at Kenilworth the 1590s dramatizations of the reign of Richard II and the Essex trial of 1601 serve as exempla of four moments in the reign of Elizabeth I which suggest an increasingly complex interaction between events and texts developing in the last half of the sixteenth century Logan argues that in representing England s recent and distant past a wide range of social subjects engaged in a struggle for intellectual credibility and social viability and in the process generated a contingent public sphere within which history framed as a coherent narrative shaped by causal relationships was brought to bear on the concerns of the Elizabethan present and future Assessing how these chronicles short prose histories and historical dramas each made use of the materials and techniques of the others blurring the distinctions between historiography and poetry as well as between past and present Logan considers the conjunctions between the development of new genres and perceptions about inscription and experience and changing socioeconomic institutions and practices Athenaeum ,1864
