Boyer, 1996 The High Profile Black Republican Candidacies of Lieutenant Governor Michael Steele, Secretary of State Kenneth Blackwell and Hall of Famer Lynn Swann James White, 2019-05-31 Specifically the purpose of this study is to evaluate the impact of three statewide black Republican candidacies in 2006 in Maryland Ohio and Pennsylvania During the 2006 midterm election cycle the Republican Party recruited and gave strong support to three high profile African American statewide candidates Secretary of State Kenneth Blackwell and former Pittsburgh Steelers star and television sports broadcaster Lynn Swann campaigned for their state s governorship in Ohio and Pennsylvania respectively Lieutenant Governor Michael Steele vied for a vacated United States Senate seat in Maryland After five decades of miserable levels of support from black voters and numerous initiatives to increase its share of the African American electorate the GOP estimated that credible black Republican candidacies would substantially improve its image among African American voters and thus garner a larger share of the black vote State Representative James White The Enduring Vision Paul S. Boyer, 1996-06 Syllabus, 1994 AAPT Announcer American Association of Physics Teachers, 1987 Model-Minority Imperialism Victor Bascara, At the beginning of the twentieth century soon after the conclusion of the Spanish American War the United States was an imperialistic nation maintaining often with the assistance of military force a far flung and growing empire After a long period of collective national amnesia regarding American colonialism in the Philippines and elsewhere scholars have resurrected the power of empire as a way of revealing American history and culture Focusing on the terms of Asian American assimilation and the rise of the model minority myth Victor Bascara examines the resurgence of empire as a tool for acknowledging and understanding the legacy of American imperialism Model Minority Imperialism links geopolitical dramas of twentieth century empire building with domestic controversies of U S racial order by examining the cultural politics of Asian Americans as they are revealed in fiction film and theatrical productions Tracing U S economic and political hegemony back to the beginning of the twentieth century through works by Jessica Hagedorn R Zamora Linmark and Sui Sin Far discourses of race economics and empire found in the speeches of William McKinley and William Jennings Bryan as well as L Frank Baum s The Wonderful

Wizard of Oz and other texts Bascara's innovative readings uncover the repressed story of U.S. imperialism and unearth the demand that the present empire reckon with its past Bascara deploys the analytical approaches of both postcolonial studies and Asian American studies two fields that developed in parallel but have only begun to converge to reveal how the vocabulary of empire reasserted itself through some of the very people who inspired the U.S. imperialist mission Victor Bascara is assistant professor of English and Asian American studies at the University of Wisconsin Madison

BOOK JACKET Epoch, 1887 Epic Encounters Melani McAlister, 2005-07-05

Epic Encounters examines how popular culture has shaped the ways Americans define their interests in the Middle East In this innovative book now brought up to date to include 9/11 and the Iraq war Melani McAlister argues that U.S. foreign policy while grounded in material and military realities is also developed in a cultural context American understandings of the region are framed by narratives that draw on religious belief news media accounts and popular culture This remarkable and pathbreaking book skillfully weaves lively and accessible readings of film media and music with a rigorous analysis of U.S. foreign policy race politics and religious history The new chapter titled 9/11 and After Snapshots on the Road to Empire considers and brilliantly analyzes five images that have become iconic

- 1 New York City firemen raising the American flag out of the rubble of the World Trade Center
- 2 the televised image of Osama bin Laden
- 3 Afghani women in burqas
- 4 the statue of Saddam Hussein being toppled in Baghdad and
- 5 the hooded and wired prisoner in Abu Ghraib

McAlister's singular achievement is to illuminate the contexts of these five images both at the time they were taken and as they relate to current events an accomplishment all the more remarkable since to paraphrase her new preface we are today struggling to look backward at something that is still rushing ahead

The Athenaeum, 1900 Athenaeum, 1858 Napoleon Sarony's Living Pictures Erin Pauwels, 2024-06-28

Napoleon Sarony was once one of the most famous names in American photography During the Gilded Age his grand portrait studio with its one story high marquee reproducing the photographer's signature in golden letters was a New York City landmark visited by celebrities such as Oscar Wilde Sarah Bernhardt and Mark Twain Sarony's story represents a central chapter in the history of photography Napoleon Sarony's Living Pictures documents Sarony's career as New York City's premier portrait photographer and details a moment when the birth of celebrity culture and growth of mass media helped promote popular acceptance of photography as fine art Sarony's larger than life public image was crucial to demonstrating photography's creative potential At a time when photographers were commonly regarded as straitlaced entrepreneurs or technicians Sarony circulated self portraits in outlandish costumes to assert himself as a flamboyantly eccentric artist These photographic performances forged an authoritative link between the so called father of artistic photography in America and the stylish celebrity portraits that emerged from his studio by the tens of thousands Reconstructing Sarony s biography and bringing to light never before published portraits Erin Pauwels provides an illuminating view of how one artist s quest for creative recognition fueled the rise of celebrity culture and artistic photography in the United States This book will appeal to historians of photography and nineteenth century American visual culture as well as anyone interested in this master of the medium of photography and his celebrity subjects The Christian Advocate ,1904 Christian Advocate and Journal and Zion's Herald ,1904 The Future Imaginary in Indigenous North American Arts and Literatures Kristina Baudemann,2021-12-30 This book examines the future in Indigenous North American speculative literature and digital arts Asking how different Indigenous works imagine the future and how they negotiate settler colonial visions of what is to come the chapters illustrate that the future is not an immutable entity but a malleable textual digital product that can function as both a colonial tool and a catalyst for decolonization Central to this study is the development of a methodology that helps unearth the signifying structures producing the future in selected works by Darcie Little Badger Gerald Vizenor Stephen Graham Jones Skawennati Danis Goulet Scott Benesiinaabandan Postcommodity Kite Jeff Barnaby and Ryan Singer Drawing on Jason Lewis s future imaginary as the theoretical core the book describes the various forms of textual representation and virtual simulation through which notions of Indigenous continuation are expressed in literary and new media works Arguing that Indigenous authors and artists apply the aesthetics of the future as a strategy in their works the volume conceptualizes its multimedia corpus as a continuously growing archive of and for Indigenous futures
