

Introduction

- Bullying and ill-treatment relate with injurious emotional and education-related effects on children.
- Policies to counter bullying are increasingly popular; since 2006, 19 States have enacted anti-bullying statute laws in the U.S.
- Social-ecological theory of bullying: the behavior draws influence from the environments in which children grow up.
- Children learn by example; they replicate their parents/guardians' actions – circumstances in the household setting may enhance the possibility of bullying behavior among children.
