Aaron agreed to enlist in the Red Army in order to move his family back to Gnadenfeld. The family braved the deadly journey only to discover life in their village was just as brutal. Neighbor betrayed neighbor and disease and famine were rampant. The Rempel family struggled to maintain their culture but under the Bolshevik government their lives were repeatedly threatened. In 1922 they began the long process of immigrating to America, a land of hope and freedom but a journey that would be even more dangerous than what had come before. Rich with details of daily life as well as the horrors of war and Communism, Never Come Back is an intimate look at one family's survival during the catastrophes of war and revolution. Our Hindu

Rashtra Aakar Patel, 2025-09-30 India has taken so sharp a turn in recent years that the very centre has shifted considerably. What led to this swing? Is it possible to trace the path to this point? Is there a way back to the just, secular, inclusive vision of our Constitution makers? This country has long been an outlier in its South Asian neighbourhood with its inclusive Constitution and functioning democracy. The growth of Hindutva in some sense brings India in line with the other polities here. In Our Hindu Rashtra, writer and activist Aakar Patel peels back layer after layer of cause and effect through independent India's history to understand how Hindutva came to gain such a hold on the country. He examines what it means for India that its laws and judiciary have been permeated by prejudice and bigotry, what the breach of fundamental rights portends in these circumstances, and what the all-round institutional collapse signifies for the future of Indians. Most importantly, Patel asks and answers that most important of questions: What possibilities exist for a return? Thought provoking and pulling no punches, this book is an essential read for anyone who wishes to understand the nature of politics in India and indeed South Asia.

Misinformation Policy in Sub-Saharan Africa Peter Cunliffe-Jones, Assane Diagne, Alan Finlay, Sahite Gaye, Wallace Gichunge, Chido Onumah, Cornia Pretorius, Anya Schiffrin, 2021-06-01 Misinformation Policy in Sub-Saharan Africa is a single volume containing two research reports by eight authors examining policy towards misinformation in Sub-Saharan Africa. The volume first examines the teaching of media literacy in state-run schools in seven Sub-Saharan African countries as of mid-2020 as relates to misinformation. It explains the limited elements of media and information literacy (MIL) that are included in the curricula in the seven countries studied and the elements of media literacy related to misinformation taught in schools in one province of South Africa since January 2020. The authors propose six fields of knowledge and skills specific to misinformation that are required in order to reduce students' susceptibility to false and misleading claims. Identifying obstacles to the introduction and effective teaching of misinformation literacy, the authors make five recommendations for the promotion of misinformation literacy in schools to reduce the harm misinformation causes. The second report in the volume examines changes made to laws and regulations related to false information in eleven countries across Sub-Saharan Africa, 2016-2020, from Ethiopia to South Africa. By examining the terms of such laws against what is known of misinformation types, drivers and effects, it assesses the likely effects of punitive policies and those of more positive approaches that provide accountability in political debate by promoting access to accurate information and corrective speech.

In contrast to the effects described for most recent regulations relating to misinformation the report identifies ways in which legal and regulatory frameworks can be used to promote a healthier information environment
