Hauntings Three True Venice Beach Vignettes:

Hauntings Suzy Jacobson Cherry, 2014-10-20 Hauntings is a small collection of short short stories based the author's real experiences while living at Venice Beach California during one summer

A Marsh Island Sarah Orne Jewett, 2023-06-13 Toward the end of her life Sarah Orne Jewett 1849 1909 made a surprising disclosure Instead of the critically lauded The Country of the Pointed Firs Jewett declared her best story to be A Marsh Island 1885 a little known novel Why One reason is that it demonstrates Jewett's range Known primarily for her vignettes Jewett accomplished in these pages a truly great novel Undoubtedly another reason lies in the novel's themes of queer kinship and same sex domesticity as enjoyed by the flamboyant protagonist Dick Dale Written a few years into Jewett's decades long companionship with Annie Fields A Marsh Island echoes Jewett's determination to split time between her family home in Maine and Fields's place on Charles Street in Boston The novel follows the adventures of Dale a Manhattanite landscape painter in the Great Marsh of northeastern Massachusetts and envisions the latter region's saltmarsh as a figure for dynamic selfhood the ever shifting boundaries between land and sea a model for valuing both individuality and a porous openness to the gifts of others Jewett's works played a major role in popularizing the genre of American regionalism and have garnered praise both in her time and ours for her skill in rendering the local landscapes and fishing villages along or near the coasts of New England Just as Jewett brought attention to the unique beauty and value of the Great marsh region editor Don James McLaughlin reveals a convergence of regionalism and sexuality in Jewett's work in his introduction A Marsh Island reminds us that queer kinship has a long tradition of being extended to incorporate queer ecological belonging and that the meaning of companionship itself is enriched when we acknowledge its indebtedness to environment

Screenwriters José Guilherme Correa, 2016-07-13 Screen writing is a unique literary form Screenplays are like musical scores in that they are intended to be interpreted on the basis of other artists performances rather than serving as finished products for the enjoyment of their readers They are written using technical jargon and tight spare prose to describe set directions Unlike a novella a script focuses on describing the literal visual aspects of the story rather than on its characters internal thoughts In screen writing the aim is to evoke those thoughts and emotions through subtext action and symbolism Prominent Hollywood script doctors include Steve Zaillian William Goldman Robert Towne Mort Nathan Quentin Tarantino etc while many up and coming screenwriters work as ghost writers This book is a modest catalogue of some of the most prominent screenwriters listed from A to Z The good are sometimes bad and they can be even Ugly Many comments herein included were googled in deference to the multiplicity of information available today yet they reflect exactly or almost what I thought An amazing thing today is how anonymous commentators on the Internet rival and even surpass the poor quality of professional media and specialised literature It all comes down to watching the truth 24 times per second to quote Jean Luc Godard's phrase Not to mention that such truth may include sex scenes violence pedophilia etc We know that a literary masterpiece like Henry James Portrait of a

Lady became a film of very poor quality as scripted by Laura Jones We know conversely that a mediocre writer like Mickey Spillane inspired at least one film as remarkable as Kiss Me Deadly thanks to A I Bezzerides script Asa former screenwriter Mr Correa must avow that he found the job most gratifying Writing that looks effortless is often hellish to write and revise It was something he did have to slog through but it proved particularly pleasing Editing discussing finishing your work is particularly gratifying Identifying your flaws and working to mitigate them is also gratifying It is a general perception that creative careers are more interesting and fun than others But the privilege of earning money through imagination and creativity is effectively hard won Please comment at will Please disagree at will Be facetious in your remarks but please be neither vicious nor mean spirited The Publishers Weekly ,1890 The Rough Guide to Copenhagen Lone

Colby,2003-04-29 Vernon Lee born Violet Paget in 1856 to English parents who lived on the Continent bridged two worlds and many cultures She was a Victorian by birth but lived into the second quarter of the twentieth century Her chosen home was Italy but she spent part of every year in England where she published over the years an impressive number of books novels short stories travel essays studies of Italian art and music psychological aesthetics polemics She was widely recognized as a woman of letters and moved freely in major literary and social circles meeting and at times having close friendships with a huge number of the major writers and intellectuals of her time among them Robert Browning Walter Pater Henry James H G Wells Bertrand Russell Bernard Berenson and Mario Praz Although she never committed herself to one program of political activism she was an advocate for feminism and social reform and during World War I was an ardent pacifist In her last years she watched with dismay the emergence of fascism Vernon Lee A Literary Biography recovers this crowded and intellectually eventful life from her previously unpublished letters and journals as well as from her books themselves Vineta Colby also explores Lee s troubled personal life from her childhood in an eccentric expatriate family to her several unhappy love affairs with women to her frank recognition that her work brilliant as some of it was remained unappreciated Through it all Vernon Lee clung to her faith in the life of the mind and through Colby s engaging biographical narrative she emerges today as a writer worthy of renewed attention and admiration Victorian Literature and Culture Series
