Summers Margot Peters, 2011-04-12 In 1948 a sixteen year old boy and girl meet briefly but fatally on a beach The boy is so stricken by the girl that he writes her begging her to answer What harm can come from writing letters he asks The girl replies SUMMERS is the story of this boy and girl based entirely on their letters which span the years 1948 to 1961 These letters are often funny sometimes sad often frustrated and angry Underneath they are always tender and longing Finally they are loving If bitter sweet love is your thing read on

Life Before Birth Bonnie Steinbock, 2011-07-11 Life Before Birth provides a coherent framework for addressing bioethical issues in which the moral status of embryos and fetuses is relevant It is based on the interest view which ascribes moral standing to beings with interests and connects the possession of interests with the capacity for conscious awareness or sentience The theoretical framework is applied to ethical and legal topics including abortion prenatal torts wrongful life the crime of feticide substance abuse by pregnant women compulsory cesareans assisted reproduction and stem cell research Along the way difficult philosophical problems such as identity and the non identity problem are thoroughly explored The book will be of interest not only to philosophers but also physicians lawyers policy makers and anyone perplexed by the many difficulties surrounding the unborn Bonnie Steinbock's excellent book is consistent thoroughgoing and intelligible Nature Steinbock's book is valuable for all interested in the ethical legal issues surrounding abortion prenatal injury and liability maternal fetal conflict and fetal embryo research The author provides an excellent historical overview of these issues but she also addresses the issues from the stance of a particular theory of moral status namely interest theory This gives coherence to her discussion as well as allowing testing of the viability of interest theory Choice A focused lucid analytically fine grained discussion of a wide variety of problems extremely useful as a survey of the current state of the debate Religious Studies Review Merits serious consideration by physicians Steinbock s interests based approach treats all questions as open another and most welcome breath of fresh air New England Journal of Medicine An extremely valuable contribution to the literature The author carefully identifies the many bioethical issues to which the status of embryos and fetuses is relevant She thoroughly reviews the extensive medical bioethical and legal literature on all of these issues offering well developed critiques of many standard positions She articulates and thoughtfully defends interesting positions on all of these topics Anyone with an interest in these issues will learn a great deal from her knowledgeable and judicious treatment of them The Journal of Clinical Ethics Teaching Copyright Sara E. Wolf,2024-12-12 Lessons resources and annotated answer keys for instructors at all levels in teaching copyright law The teaching of copyright and related concepts can easily be overwhelming to instructors who are experts in their field but may have little to no detailed understanding of copyright law They require reliable accessible information to coach students on copyright related matters Teaching Copyright Practical Lesson Ideas and Instructional Resources provides explicit guidance based on U S copyright law in the teaching of copyright and related concepts to learners at schools colleges and universities Instructors are supported with time saving resources such as lesson templates scenarios practice activities and a downloadable test question bank Additionally Bloom s Taxonomy labels lessons activities and assessment items to enable an appropriately diverse set of learning for students Instead of reducing copyright to simple recall the lessons and information in this text will help instructors develop higher level thinking about copyright and assist them in measuring learners abilities not just to remember but also to analyze and evaluate copyright dilemmas Journal of Education ,1882

Teaching the Best Practice Way Harvey Daniels,Marilyn Bizar,2005 Everyone talks about best practice teaching but what does it actually look like in the classroom How do working teachers translate complex curriculum standards into simple workable classroom structures that embody exemplary instruction and still let kids find joy in learning In Teaching the Best Practice Way Harvey Daniels and Marilyn Bizar present seven basic teaching structures that make classrooms more active experiential collaborative democratic and cognitive while simultaneously meeting best practice standards across subject areas and throughout the grades Each section begins with an essay outlining one key method providing its historical background and research results and then describing the structure s vital features Next several teachers representing different grade levels and school communities explain how they adopted the basic model adapted it to their students needs and made it their own Fully updating and expanding Methods that Matter Stenhouse 1998 Teaching the Best Practice Way adds the stories of twenty more celebrated teachers including James Beane Donna Ogle Franki Sibberson and others from around the country A brand new chapter focuses on reading as thinking detailing the ways teachers can nurture strategic readers readers who not only deeply understand the printed materials they encounter in school but who also bring these cognitive strategies to their reading of film art music and their experience of the world The book also shares new research studies that validate the principles and activities of best practice teaching along with lists of recommended materials that support each of the seven methods Unique in the field Teaching the Best Practice Way speaks to all teachers K 12 with stories examples and practical classroom materials for the teachers of all children This is the book for teachers schools and districts that believe the big ideas about teaching really do cross all grade levels and subject areas Education professors will also find this an ideal resource for use in methods courses

Riswold, 2024-08-13 Riswold calls us to think together about the ELCA's 1991 social statement on abortion Our social political and legal context has changed drastically since this statement was written but one thing remains the same we as Lutherans are called to compassionate community What does this mean for us today Riswold invites readers into thoughtful conversation in an engaging and accessible volume that will help individuals faith communities and classrooms engage the complex issues surrounding abortion in the United States ReEngaging ELCA Social Teaching on Abortion draws on theology biblical foundations and Lutheran ethical witness to develop a nuanced and thought provoking analysis of the roots reach and contemporary context of Lutheran social teaching on abortion Placing readers in the shoes of others who might engage this statement Riswold asks us to consider abortion in all its complexity through the lens of neighbor love Suitable for both personal and community use this volume includes discussion questions and a curated list of resources for additional reading Principles of Oocyte and Embryo Donation Mark V. Sauer, 2013-03-01 The versatility of oocyte and embryo donation has proven to be extremely valuable to both patients and doctors engaged in reproductive medicine Originally thought to be applicable only to a rather small subset of infertile women today busy practices commonly recommend the procedure and it is estimated that nearly all of the 400 or more IVF programs in the United States provide these services Oocyte and embryo donation has established itself as a mainstay procedure within assisted reproductive care and the breadth depth and complexity of practice is deserving of focused attention Much has changed within the field of oocyte and embryo donation since the publication of the first edition of Principles of Oocyte and Embryo Donation in 1998 thus the need for a completely updated and more expansive text The second edition of this book provides an overview of the major issues affecting men and women engaged in the practice of oocyte and embryo donation A primary emphasis has been placed on defining the standards of practice that have evolved over the past 30 years clearly stating the outcomes expected from adhering to these established protocols Details of both the basic science and the clinical medicine are presented together and attention is also focused on the non reproductive aspects inherent to this unique method of assisted reproduction that involves opinions from lawyers ethicists mental health care professionals and theologians Oocyte and embryo donation requires a working knowledge of the medicine the law and the ethics that underlies its foundation This book is intended to serve as a complete and comprehensive reference for all health care professionals that provide services related to egg donation reproductive endocrinologists obstetrician gynecologists and fellows and residents entering the fertility field Voices From the Margins, 2008-01-01 Equitable access to education is fundamental to any concept of social justice offering as it does the means of escape from social and economic marginalisation Despite this in too many countries around the world groups of children are systematically denied access to education which will equip them for meaningful participation in the society in which they live Their needs are ignored and their voices are silenced They are locked into the position of marginalised other the perpetual stranger in society This collection of studies by an international group of researchers provides a place for migrant refugee and indigenous children to talk about their school experiences Refugee children from the Sudan Afghanistan and Somalia indigenous children from Sweden Australia New Zealand and Vietnam migrant children in Canada Iceland and Hong Kong urban and rural children from Zanzibar all speak out through drawings small group and individual discussion For some children their school experiences are positive ones in which systems and teachers work together to meet their needs For others their experiences are of racism isolation inadequately equipped and poorly funded schools unsympathetic teachers and education systems designed to cater for majority groups Despite these differences all the children remain enthusiastic about school They are in the words of a boy from Afghanistan thirsty to learn The children and the researchers all argue for education as a means to redress rather than perpetuate disadvantage A vital first step in this process is to hear what is being said by those most affected by current practices The narratives in this text offer a chance to do just that Cover photo Marginalized Gustav Alerby Rosvik Sweden
