

Chapter 3 – Migration ANSWER KEY

AP Human Geography – Reading Guide

Key Issue 1 – Where are the World's Migrants Distributed?

Pgs. 78 – 85

1. Geographers study migration by examining the ____ locations ____ of migration and ____ reasons why people migrate ____.
2. Define mobility: covers all types of movements from one place to another
3. Define circulation: when people move in cyclical movements
  - a. Example: migrant workers or college students that move from home to college based on school semesters
4. Explain the difference between emigration and immigration.
Emigration: migration from a location
Immigration: migration to a location
5. Define net migration: the difference in the number of immigrants and the number of emigrants
6. Migration may be classified as either international or internal. What is the difference?
International: permanent move from one country to another
Internal: permanent move within the same country
7. Why do countries in Southwest Asia attract immigrants? For jobs in the oil fields
8. What types of factors are usually responsible for voluntary migration?
Immigrant chooses to move, usually for economic improvement
9. What types of factors are usually responsible for forced migration (refugees)?
Immigrant is forced/push to move for political or environmental factors...might not want to actually immigrate.

Climate Change Solutions and Environmental Migration Anna Ginty, 2021-04-20 This book lifts the taboo on maladaptation a different driver of environmentally induced migration which shines a light on the negative consequences arising from the solutions to climate change adaptation and mitigation policies Through a systematic analysis and critique of existing mitigation and adaptation policies under the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change UNFCCC and international development community and supplemented by a small empirical study in Indonesia this book catalogues how maladaptation is manufactured under existing climate change solutions It posits that customary communities in general and women in particular are disproportionately affected by the dominant market driven logics that underscore current climate change solutions adopted by the UNFCCC The injustice of maladaptation is highlighted as multi faceted and explored using political economic social and ecological lenses and the concept of environmental reintegration is also explored as a possible solution to this issue Further possibilities are then presented in the Afterword as a combination of what the new post neoliberalism conjuncture could potentially look like This volume will be of great interest to students scholars and practitioners of climate change environmental policy environmental migration and displacement development studies I NGOs and civil society actors and activists more broadly
