1.4 Student A
I wasn't a very motivated student when I was younger, so I failed my exams in 1999 and had to retake them the following summer. I'd already decided I wanted to take a gap year then go to business school, so this time I completed all the coursework and revised thoroughly. I passed easily. I spent a year abroad as an assistant in a secondary school and then went to business school - I'd already applied and successfully attended an interview before retaking my exams.
In my second year as an undergraduate, I spent a semester as an intern at Harleth Packard, which was very rewarding. In fact, I went straight into a job at HEP after I graduated the following June. They encouraged me to do a Master's degree by correspondence - I just have to finish writing a dissertation. I need a break now, but I may take a sabbatical to study for an MBA in a few years' time.

When I left school I wasn't sure what to do next. I had applied for a place at university, but while I was revising for my exams I had already decided that I didn't feel ready for university. I had read a lot about East Africa, and one day when I was watching a TV documentary about Ethiopia, I suddenly knew that that was where I was going. In fact it was while I was working with an NGO in Ethiopia that I became interested in business.

 - Yes, now, if I make a commitment, I do my best to respect it.
 - If by any chance the job were based in Kenya, I would take it anyway, even though I'd prefer to use my Ambulac.

1.4 In the short term, I hope (1) I'll become a department manager quite quickly. I've learnt a lot about management on the MBA, and (2) I'm going to put the theory into practice as soon as I can. On the personal front, (3) I'm getting married next June, over the next couple of years my fiancé (4) is going to write TV and movie scripts, so (5) he is going to be totally mobile and happy to move as necessary.
