Educational technology adoption is more widespread than ever in the wake of COVID 19 as corporations have commodified student engagement in makeshift packages marketed as gamification This book seeks to create a space for playful learning in higher education asserting the need for a pedagogy of care and engagement as well as collaboration with students to help us reimagine education outside of prescriptive educational technology Virtual learning has turned the course management system into the classroom and business platforms for streaming video have become awkward substitutions for lecture and discussion Gaming once heralded as a potential tool for rethinking our relationship with educational technology is now inextricably linked in our collective understanding to challenges of misogyny white supremacy and the circulation of misinformation The initial promise of games based learning seems to linger only as gamification a form of structuring that creates mechanisms and incentives but limits opportunity for play As higher education teeters on the brink of unprecedented crisis this book proclaims the urgent need to find a space for playful learning and to find new inspiration in the platforms and interventions of personal gaming and in turn restructure the corporatized surveilling classroom of a gamified world Through an in depth analysis of the challenges and opportunities presented by pandemic pedagogy this book reveals the conditions that led to the widespread failure of adoption of games based learning and offers a model of hope for a future driven by new tools and platforms for personal experimental game making as intellectual inquiry Intentional Moves Elisa B.

Snapshots of History Shirley Marie McCarther,2022-01-01 2021 Special Edition of the American Educational History Journal The official journal of the Organization of Educational Historians The American Educational History Journal is a peer reviewed national research journal devoted to the examination of educational topics using perspectives from a variety of disciplines For more information about the Organization of Educational Historians OEH and its annual conference visit the OEH web site at the web address www.edhistorians.org This Special Edition of the American Educational History Journal entitled Snapshots of Educational History Portraits of the 21st Century Pandemic is the first special issue in the history of AEHJ The word unprecedented has literally been used thousands of times during 2020 by news outlets in our work environments and in our daily lives And indeed the global pandemic has killed over 600 000 in the United States alone at the time of this writing The public health crisis shut down everything as we knew it Captives of sheltering in place scores of incidents displaying horrific police brutality against people of color streamed live on airwaves north south east and west begetting civil unrest across the country These are circumstances unlike any we have experienced in our lifetimes As historians it is critical that we document this time of crisis so that generations to come can bear witness to this time of turmoil and tragedy With these ideas in mind the American Educational History Journal sought to hear from historians and other scholars about this unique and devastating time in our country s history The Journal honors the traditions of oral history and narrative storytelling as a means to gather the voices of those whose lives have been touched by the COVID 19 crisis literally everyone around the globe This special issue deviates a bit from traditional AEHJ requirements in that we specifically invited narratives not be full blown historical research studies The point of this special issue is for authors themselves to serve as the archival material that will benefit future scholars interested in understanding what it meant to live through this health catastrophe while doing the work of educators We believe we owe it to the historians of the future to share our voices in real time
