

F633 Section A Generic Mark Grid (50 marks maximum).

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Level 4
0 marks = no response or no response worthy of credit
Explanation, analysis and argument	Candidates offer a limited response to the topic area. There is a limited degree of clarity and engagement with the films studied. Comparison between texts is largely absent or implicit and there may be inaccuracy in the limited argument offered. Overall the response may be incomplete and/or lack relevance to the question. [1-7]	Candidates offer a basic response with some limited ability to link to the wider contexts the question demands. Response is largely coherent with a basic attempt at comparison. [8-11]	Candidates offer a response which demonstrates a proficient ability to engage with the issues that the question demands. At the top end this is a proficient grasp of the wider contextual issues that the chosen texts operate within. Comparison between texts is clear and some appropriate links between the texts is evident. [12-15]	Candidates demonstrate excellent knowledge and understanding of the contextual issues relevant to the films studied. Arguments are well structured and convincing offering clear engagement with the films discussed. Comparison is confident, relevant and sustained throughout. [16-20]
Use of Examples	Use of examples is brief, limited and may not be relevant to the topic area. Reference to two texts from different non-English language regions or historical contexts may be ignored or inaccurate. [1-7]	Description may dominate with limited reference to textual evidence from the focus films. Examples may be appropriate but infrequent and offer a basic exploration of the texts studied. [8-11]	Candidates at this level demonstrate proficient ability to support points with textual evidence. They make detailed and accurate reference to the films studied and demonstrate some ability to link examples to the demands of the question. [12-15]	Candidates at this level demonstrate an excellent ability to support points with frequent and accurate textual evidence. They make use of a range of examples from the texts and demonstrate confident ability to link examples to the demands of the question. [16-20]
Use of terminology	Use of film terminology is limited and not always accurate. [1-3]	Use of film terminology is largely accurate but basic and may lack frequency. [4-5]	Use of film terminology is appropriate, frequent and mostly accurate in its application. [6-7]	Use of film terminology is confident, frequent and consistently accurate. [8-10]
General guidance including QWC	Simple and generalized ideas are expressed here and may be frequently inaccurate. Clarity in expression is limited, and errors in spelling, punctuation and grammar prevent effective communication.	Responses are appropriate but simple. Knowledge is evident but may at times be insecure and lack detail. Errors in spelling, punctuation and grammar are present some of which may be noticeable and intrusive.	Responses are relevant and demonstrate clarity and fluency. A clear attempt to address the set question is evident although responses may at times stray from this. Communication is clear with some errors in spelling, punctuation and grammar but these are rarely noticeable or intrusive.	Clear engagement with non-English language texts is evident, expressed in a clear and fluent manner. The question is fully explored and clearly contextualized. There may be few if any errors in spelling, grammar and punctuation.
