The Proud Oak

Once upon a time, in a beautiful forest, there stood a large, old oak tree. He was very proud of his size and strength. He looked down on all the other trees and said, "I am the king of the forest. No one can match me."

One day, a gentle reed grew up near the oak. The reed was very small and thin, but he was very smart. He said to the oak, "You are very strong, but you are also very proud. One day, a storm will come and you will be broken. I, on the other hand, will survive because I am flexible."

The oak laughed and said, "You are just a small reed. You will be broken first. I will stand firm and strong. I will not be moved by any storm. I will be the king of the forest forever."

One day, a strong wind came. The oak stood firm and strong. He said to the reed, "I am the king of the forest. I will not be moved by any storm. I will be the king of the forest forever."

The reed bowed his head and said, "I am sorry, but I am just a small reed. I will be broken first. I will not survive the storm. I will be the first to be broken."

The oak laughed and said, "You are just a small reed. You will be broken first. I will stand firm and strong. I will be the king of the forest forever."
