The Worldview of the Word of Faith Movement: Eden Redeemed Mikael Stenhammar, 2021-12-16 This volume approaches the Word of Faith as a worldview and analyses the movement through N T Wright's model for worldview analysis in order to provide necessary nuance and complexity to scholarly interpretations of the Word of Faith The reader receives insights into the movement's narrative semiotic practical and propositional dimensions which cumulatively offer a multifaceted understanding of how the Word of Faith interprets reality and engages with the world The analysis shows that there is a narrative core to Word of Faith beliefs in the form of a unique theological story with focus set on the present restoration of Eden's authority and blessings This study demonstrates how the Word of Faith operates as a distinct worldview that parses the world through the lens of faith's causative power to affect a direct correspondence between present reality and Eden's perfection The findings advance a critical and therapeutic approach that acknowledges how the worldview both strengthens and subverts Pentecostalism

Word and Power Gareth W. D. Stewart, 2015-02-16 Historically the Reformed and Charismatic streams have seemed to be almost mutually exclusive In recent years this exclusivity has been being challenged by a new generation of Reformed thinkers This work aims at considering the contribution of John Wimber the late leader of the Vineyard Churches to contemporary theological reflection within the Reformed tradition Taking into account John Wimber's unique theology of the radical middle which is somewhere between Pentecostal and Evangelical this book asks whether Wimber may be a possible alternative source for the contemporary Reformed Churches as they approach ministry and mission in the twenty first century Written from a confessional Presbyterian context in Northern Ireland Word and Power places Wimber in his theological context and asks whether Wimber's view of power evangelism discipleship formation and ministry training might be a model that Reformed Churches and Presbyterians in particular could adopt for their ecclesiology today

Global Pentecostal and Charismatic Healing Candy Gunther Brown, 2011 Divine healing is an essential marker of the global phenomenon of Pentecostal and Charismatic Christianity But although we know that healing is central in these movements we know surprisingly little about how divine healing beliefs and practices reflect the interplay of local and global patterns of cultural development The essays in this collection seek to discover what is the same and what is different about such beliefs and practices in diverse contexts trace formal and informal lines of cultural influence across geographic and national boundaries and ask how healing both reflects and contributes to larger processes of globalization The collection not only fleshes out a picture of how and why spiritual healing is practiced in diverse cultural contexts and how healing practices reflect and shape the transnational spread of Christianity it also provide insight into the nature of globalization The authors attend to a wide range of issues including the theological rationales for divine healing the symbolic objects and ritual enactments employed the cultural controversies surrounding these practices the relationship between Christian healing and local or indigenous healing traditions whether an emphasis on financial prosperity is always present and the extent to which Pentecostal and Charismatic churches are networked and the role of healing in such networks With nearly all new essays this informative volume edited by Candy Gunther Brown contains a forward by Harvey Cox and contributions from an international team of sixteen professors academics and scholars
