The London Mini and Midi Bus Types David Beddall,2024-06-06 London

Passenger Transport Board inherited a number of small buses from various independent operators during the early 1930s followed by the introduction of the Leyland Cub around the same period The introduction of the big bus policy saw many of the small buses withdrawn from service The 1950s saw the introduction of the GS class Guy Special for use on the lightly trafficked country routes More smaller buses entered the London Transport fleet in the form of the Ford Transit and Bristol LH LHS saloons The mid 1980s saw a resurgence in small bus operation as a cost cutting exercise Many new types entered service with London Buses Limited and other independent operators The introduction of these minibuses saw a number of new services introduced to serve previously unserved areas of London However the success of these small buses led to their replacement by the larger Dennis Dart midibus while the introduction of varying lengths of Darts catered for many of London s needs other types of mini and midibuses were taken into stock by London based operators for fill in gaps London s Mini and midibuses takes a look at the various types of mini and midibuses that have operated on routes in the Greater London area
