Gender and Education in Kenya Esther Mukewa Lisanza,2021-04-28 Gender and Education in Kenya explores the intersections of curriculum pedagogy policy and gender The contributors study depictions of gender in textbooks the presence and roles of girls and women within classrooms in Kenya and female leadership in education arguing that despite recent policies put in place by the Kenyan government to ensure gender parity in education there is still a need to make curriculum more gender responsive Gender and Education in Kenya examines the disparity between male and female representation in education and advocate for more training for teachers about gender related educational policies and implementing gender responsive objectives in classrooms The collection concludes with a study of the intersection of gender and disability with a chapter that explores the additional challenges for a blind girl in school and the lack of policies in place to help disabled students

A Manual for the Heads of Secondary Schools in Kenya Kenya. Ministry of Education,1979

The Palgrave Handbook of Kenyan History Wanjala S. Nasong'o,Maurice N. Amutabi,Toyin Falola,2023-01-25 This volume covers Kenya s history society culture economics politics and environment from precolonial times through the first years of independence The book comprises twenty one chapters divided into two parts Part I focuses on the long precolonial moment detailing the nature of precolonial Kenyan societies and their economics politics gender dynamics and social organization Part II examines Kenyan societies encounters with British colonialism critically outlining the impact and implications of these encounters The volume concludes with an examination of political consolidation after the country's attainment of political independence and the subsequent foundations for political authoritarianism Kenya National Bibliography Kenya National Library Service. National Reference & Bibliographic Department, 2007 The Struggle for the School John E. Anderson, 1970 Report on the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya for the Year ..., 1947 School Science Practical Work in Africa Umesh Ramnarain, 2020-06-01 School Science Practical Work in Africa presents the scope of research and practice of science practical work in African schools. It brings together prominent science educators and researchers from Africa to share their experience and findings on pedagogical innovations and research-informed practices on school science practical work. The book highlights trends and patterns in the enactment and role of practical work across African countries. Practical work is regarded as intrinsic to science teaching and learning and the form of practical work that is strongly advocated is inquiry-based learning, which signals a definite paradigm shift from the traditional teacher-dominated to a learner-centered approach. The book provides empirical research on approaches to practical work, contextual factors in the enactment of practical work, and professional development in teaching practical work. This book will be of great interest to academics, researchers, and postgraduate students in the fields of science education and educational policy.
