In the 1990s a political movement of transgender activism coalesced to campaign for transgender rights. Considerable social, political and legal changes are occurring in response, and there is increasing acceptance by governments and many other organisations and actors of the legitimacy of these rights. This provocative and controversial book explores the consequences of these changes and offers a feminist perspective on the ideology and practice of transgenderism, which the author sees as harmful. It explores the effects of transgenderism on the lesbian and gay community, the partners of people who are transgender, children who are identified as transgender, and the people who transgender themselves, and argues that these are negative. In doing so, the book contends that the phenomenon is based upon sex stereotyping referred to as gender, a conservative ideology that forms the foundation for women's subordination. Gender Hurts argues for the abolition of gender, which would remove the rationale for transgenderism. This book will be of interest to scholars and students of political science, feminism, and feminist theory and gender studies.

Doctrine and Difference Michael J. Colacurcio, 2023-12-22. Doctrine and Difference: The Thematic Scale of Classic American Literature aims to expand and deepen our knowledge into the inquiry of contextual historicism, observing writers of the American nineteenth century and their vastly differing approaches to perceptions such as race, gender, and national identity. Ranging from the religious acuties of the first American Puritans to the more secularized literary awakening of the American Renaissance, and into late century texts that deliberately resist the limits of received religious and political opinion, this volume seeks to uncover a history of human thought within classic American Literature. This volume critically observes these survivable works of literature, presenting insight into the difference made by conversation, dispute, and dramatized self-doubt within novels and poems of the historical past.
