Brigham Young University-Hawaii School of Education

Teacher: This is you!	Grade Level & Content Area:
Lesson Title: The title should clearly and accurately describe the essence of your lesson. A reader should be able to see your lesson title and know exactly what you will focus on.
Materials: - Identify type and number of materials. - Use APA style to cite your sources.
Common Core State Standards and/or Content Standards: - Identify 1-2 standards. - Write them out in their entirety and include reference, like this: "Determine a theme or central idea of a text and analyze its development over the course of the text" (Reading Standards for Literature, grade 7, standard 2, or Reading Standard for Literature 7.2). - The standard(s) should match the grade level of the class you are teaching.
Lesson Outcomes²: (1-2 outcomes, NOT more than 3 outcomes) - Your outcomes must be closely aligned with your standard(s). That means you should design specific outcomes that will help you determine if learners have met the target standard(s). - Your outcomes should be clear, specific, and measurable. Remember, your assessments should align with the outcomes. - Use this template to construct your outcomes: "Learners" + verb + noun/objective + specifics - Learners identify and defend a theme from a chapter in Sandra Cisneros's novel, The House on Mango Street. - Learners analyze how Cisneros develops one theme over the course of the chapter, drawing upon textual evidence to support the analysis.

¹ Use this template to prepare your lesson plans by cutting the bullets and inserting your lesson into the appropriate sections/headings. With the exception of the Materials section, where you may use bullets, use complete sentences throughout.

² Bloom's (1956) and Anderson and Krothwohl's (2001) knowledge taxonomies and Rtl levels/tiers will be useful here in determining the nature of the outcomes.
