Gordon, 2019-03-01 In Fieldnotes from a Depth Psychological Exploration of Evil Robin L Gordon presents an accessible account of an attempt to define and understand the nature of evil Gordon takes on the role of guide to this confusing land tying together threads of Jungian theory philosophy etymology neuroscience and history as we are led on a personal journey of discovery Gordon begins by analysing what a twelfth century meeting between Chinggis Khan and Taoist priest Ch ang Ch un can tell us about the presence of opposing traits and the nature of evil in human beings We learn what depth psychology has said about evil and the shadow part of our psyches and examine examples of human behaviour throughout history to understand the etymological philosophical and historical understandings and definitions of evil Gordon s own relationship with her work and the feelings that arise when researching the psychological framework of Nazi doctors genocide in Rwanda Bosnia and Syria and the functionality of serial killers are interrogated We then return to Chinggis Khan s and Ch ang Ch un s relationship attempting to build a real and practical definition of evil and assessing their dialogues as a metaphor for Jung s views of the transcendent function Fieldnotes from a Depth Psychological Exploration of Evil will be essential reading for academics and students of Jungian and post Jungian studies sociology criminology and philosophy It will also be a key resource for Jungian analysts and psychotherapists interested in the study of evil and its impact on society and the psyche as well as anyone investigating and redefining their own meanings of evil past and present Tales of adventure by sea and land [ed. by W.D.]. The Depth of Faith Jayamon Jacob, 2012-10-22 The ultimate goal of this book is to increase anyones faithlessness weak faith or little faith to a substantial gravity of mature and deep faith in Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ since true faith is the bridge between God and man The Bible clearly spells out Jesus is the author and finisher of faith and every believer in Him ought to follow His footsteps While reading this book a genuine transformation in your faith may take place and you may feel the amount of faith slowly enhances and spiritual darkness gradually vanishes Feel the light arrive which would eventually portray the bright and morning star and it is nobody but Jesus Christ He is the Bishop of all souls who knocks at every door to open and anyone opens by faith He would dine with him or her and that person would truly understand He is the author and finisher of your faith Surface and Depth Richard Shusterman, 2018-08-06 A paradox of surface and depth pervades the field of aesthetics How can art s surface meanings and qualities be properly appreciated without understanding the cultural context that shapes their creation and perception But exploring such underlying cultural conditions challenges the perception of those qualities and meanings of aesthetic surface that constitute the captivating power of art If aesthetics deals with both surface and depth impassioned immediacy yet also critical distance of judgment how can this doubleness be held together in one philosophical vision In his new book Richard Shusterman explores the dialectics of surface and depth by examining key issues in the philosophy of art and culture from the logic of interpretation and evaluation to the roots of taste and convention from the meanings of aesthetic purity and immediacy to the role of nature theory and history in our experience and understanding of art In treating these topics Shusterman combines the methods of analytic philosophy critical theory and poststructuralism to arrive at new positions displaying the philosophical versatility originality of vision and graceful accessible writing that have become his trademark Surface and Depth is crowned by a new definition of art as dramatization

Journey Into Depth Mary Wolff-Salin,2005 Journey into Depth is about the experience of initiation as it plays itself out in two domains the monastic and the training to become a Jungian psychoanalyst The very disparateness of these fields from an external point of view highlights the deeper level of similarity in their initiatory experiences A few major anthropological guidelines concerning initiation provide a framework of reflection as to what is really going on when a person passes through this kind of adult rite of passage Conclusions as to the human importance of such experiences follow with special emphasis on their spiritual consequences in terms of growth

Howard,2012-02-24 The three volume work Perceiving in Depth is a sequel to Binocular Vision and Stereopsis and to Seeing in Depth both by Ian P Howard and Brian J Rogers This work is much broader in scope than the previous books and includes mechanisms of depth perception by all senses including aural electrosensory organs and the somatosensory system Volume 1 reviews sensory coding psychophysical and analytic procedures and basic visual mechanisms Volume 2 reviews stereoscopic vision Volume 3 reviews all mechanisms of depth perception other than stereoscopic vision The three volumes are extensively illustrated and referenced and provide the most detailed review of all aspects of perceiving the three dimensional world Volume 1 starts with a review of the history of visual science from the ancient Greeks to the early 20th century with special attention devoted to the discovery of the principles of perspective and stereoscopic vision The first chapter also contains an account of early visual display systems such as panoramas and peepshows and the development of stereoscopes and stereophotography A chapter on the psychophysical and analytic procedures used in investigations of depth perception is followed by a chapter on sensory coding and the geometry of visual space An account of the structure and physiology of the primate visual system proceeds from the eye through the LGN to the visual cortex and higher visual centers This is followed by a review of the evolution of visual systems and of the development of the mammalian visual system in the embryonic and post natal periods with an emphasis on experience dependent neural plasticity An account of the development of perceptual functions especially depth perception is followed by a review of the effects of early visual deprivation during the critical period of neural plasticity on amblyopia and other defects in depth perception Volume 1 ends with accounts of the accommodation mechanism of the human eye and vergence eye movements
