Living in Christ Stephen W. Hiemstra, 2020-04-20 Our journey in Christian ethics starts with God in whose image we are created Creation begins with birth and continues as we mature Our character matures shaped by the example of Christ under the mentorship of the Holy Spirit through the family and the church Christian leaders reach full maturity once they are able to mentor others we are blessed to be a blessing Living in Christ focuses on explaining not justifying Christian ethics At a time and in a place where people scoff at developing a theological understanding of their faith and refuse to teach Christian morality ethics is almost a lost art At the heart of the ethical dilemma is a tension between theological principles that can only be resolved the guidance of the Holy Spirit How do you practice forgiveness for sinners who refuse to confess their sin and force you to bear its consequences In this context ethics is less a philosophical discipline that a recognition of our own limitations as Christians and the need for divine intervention Ethical thought and action always involve interpretation under the guidance of the Holy Spirit It is thus ironic that a book on Christian living should have an outward focus on God rather than an inward focus on what to do and not do This interpretative element colors how we view character formation the community of faith leadership and the many special issues that arise in daily life Hear the words walk the steps experience the joy

Ethics and Experiments Scott Desposato, 2015-12-22 For most of political science s history discussions about professional ethics had nothing to do with human subjects Professional ethics involved integrity in the classroom fair tenure and promotion rule and the careful avoidance of plagiarism As most research was observational there was little need for attention to how scholarly activities might directly affect the subjects of our work Times have changed The dramatic growth in the use of experiments in social science especially overseas is generating unexpected ethical controversies The purpose of this volume is to identify debate and propose practical solutions to the most critical of these new ethical issues A leading team of internationally distinguished political science scholars presents the first examination of the practical and ethical challenges of research with human subjects in social science and policy studies Part 1 examines contextual challenges provided by experiments conducted overseas questions of culture religion security and poverty Part 2 examines questions of legal constraints on research focusing on questions of foreign review of international experiments Part 3 tackles the critical issues in field experiments including deception and consent impact on elections and careers the boundaries of the public officials exemption and the use of partner organizations to avoid Institutional Review Body IRB review Part 4 considers strategies for the future including training and education IRB reform institutional changes and norm development The Bloomsbury Handbook of World Theory Jeffrey R. Di Leo, Christian Moraru, 2021-11-18 Disciplines from literary studies to environmentalism have recently undergone a spectacular reorientation that has refocused entire fields methodologies and vocabularies on the world and its sister terms such as globe planet and earth The Bloomsbury Handbook of World Theory examines what world means and what it accomplishes in different zones of academic study The contributors raise questions such as What happens when world is appended to a particular form of humanistic or scientific inquiry How exactly does worlding bear on the theoretical operating system and the history of that field What is the theory or theoretical model that allows world to function in a meaningful way in coordination with that knowledge domain With contributions from 38 leading theorists from a vast range of fields including queer studies religion and pop culture this is the first large reference work to consider the profound effect both within and outside the academy of the worlding of discourse in the 21st century
