was considered a budget option a model engineered primarily for the price conscious customer Certainly performance models were already in Chevrolet s fold With the Camaro the Corvette and the Chevelle leading the way why would Chevy need another performance model Well savvy Chevy customers knew that you could get a really tricked out Nova right from the factory with SS packages and big block 396 engines along with performance transmissions and gearing for a fair amount less than an equally equipped Camaro As a bonus Novas were lighter weight too It was the performance bargain of the Chevy lineup Fast forward to today The first generation Camaros cost a small fortune and while Novas have held their value quite well they are still a performance bargain compared to the other Chevy performance models of the era Not only are they more
