Unsafe Home Limor Ezioni, 2020-09-30 In Unsafe Home: Child Harming within the Family, Limor Ezioni focuses on the three major types of child harming within the family: abuse, incest and filicide, and provides an in-depth exploration of each type historically, legally and comparatively. In the first part, focusing on abuse executed on children, Ezioni addresses both physical and emotional abuse, discussing what constitutes child abuse, how it should be punished and whether any damage caused to a child is prosecutable by law. In the second part of the book, Ezioni examines childhood incest, focusing on adult survivors and the multitude of legal problems they face while attempting to pursue justice through the legal system and questioning whether the current legal and criminal provisions provide sufficient protection for survivors. In the final section of the book, Ezioni examines the filicide phenomenon and how the judicial system in western countries deals with the painful reality that reflects the society in which it occurs: filicide is often carried out by parents who are unable to function as a parent in circumstances dictated by the place and time in which they live. Scholars of legal studies, family studies, criminology and sociology will find this book particularly useful.

The Marginalized in Death Jennifer F. Byrnes, Iván Sandoval-Cervantes, 2022-08-31 This volume bridges the gap between forensic and cultural anthropology in how both disciplines describe and theorize the dead highlighting the potential for interdisciplinary scholarship As applied disciplines dealing with some of the most marginalized people in our society forensic anthropologists have the potential to shed light on important and persistent social issues that we face today Forensic anthropologists have successfully pursued research agendas primarily focused on the development of individual biological profiles time since death recovery and identification

Few however have taken a step back from their lab bench to consider how and why people become forensic cases or place their work in a larger theoretical context. Thus this volume challenges forensic anthropologists to reflect how we can use our toolkit and databases to address larger social issues and quandaries that we face in a world where some are spared from becoming forensic anthropology cases and others are not. As witnesses to violence crimes against humanity and the embodied consequences of structural violence, we have the opportunity and arguably the responsibility to transcend the traditional medico-legal confines of our small sub-discipline by synthesizing forensic anthropology casework into theoretically grounded social science with potentially transformative impacts at a global scale.
