The Children's Buyer's Guide ,2006

Aspects of Teaching Secondary Mathematics Linda Haggarty,2003-09-02 If learners in the classroom are to be excited by mathematics teachers need to be both well informed about current initiatives and able to see how what is expected of them can be translated into rich and stimulating classroom strategies The book examines current initiatives that affect teaching mathematics and identifies pointers for action in the classroom Divided into three major sections it looks at the changing mathematics classroom at primary secondary and tertiary level major components of the secondary curriculum practical pedagogical issues of particular concern to mathematics teachers Each issue is explored in terms of major underpinnings and research in that area and practical ideas can be drawn from the text and implemented in the reader's classroom practice Each chapter has been written by a well respected writer researcher and practitioner in their field and all share a common goal to look thoughtfully and intelligently at some of the practical issues facing mathematics teachers and offer their perspectives on those issues

What's the Point of School? Guy Claxton, 2013-10-01 Why the education system is failing our kids and how we can start the revolution that will save our schools With their emphasis on regurgitated knowledge and stressful exams today's schools actually do more harm than good Guiding readers past the sterile debates about City Academies and dumbed down exams Claxton proves that education's key responsibility should be to create enthusiastic learners who will go on to thrive as adults in a swiftly changing dynamic world Students must be encouraged to sharpen their wits ask questions and think for themselves all without chucking out Shakespeare or the Periodic Table Blending down to earth examples with the latest advances in brain science and written with passion wit and authority this brilliant book will inspire teachers parents and readers of all backgrounds to join a practical revolution and foster in the next generation a natural curiosity and the spirit of adventure
