Australasian Parks and Leisure, 2007 Recreation as a Developmental Experience: Theory Practice Research

Lawrence R. Allen, Robert J. Barcelona, 2011-07-26 It's not all fun and games. A growing body of research suggests that recreation activities can be powerful development contexts when they are properly framed and intentionally designed. This volume highlights much of that research and the articles that follow provide ample evidence that well-framed recreation activities and contexts can provide a range of positive developmental outcomes. Editors Lawrence R. Allen and Robert J. Barcelona draw on their own work in human and youth development and have assembled contributing authors who explore the importance of meaningful recreation and leisure experiences in the lives of youth and the value of recreation from a developmental perspective. Chapters focus on the developmental potential of specific recreation contexts and settings and provide research and evidence-based strategies outlining the activities that best promote positive youth development. Finally, the volume demonstrates how recreation is being used to strengthen individual and community assets and its role as a contributor in addressing pressing social issues. This is the 130th volume of New Directions for Youth Development, the Jossey-Bass quarterly report series dedicated to bringing together everyone concerned with helping young people, including scholars, practitioners, and people from different disciplines and professions. The result is a unique resource presenting thoughtful, multi-faceted approaches to helping our youth develop into responsible, stable, well-rounded citizens. Therapeutic Recreation Leadership and Programming Robin Kunstler, Frances Stavola Daly, 2010-06-14 Therapeutic Recreation Leadership and Programming will help students learn the essential aspects of professional practice while developing a leadership mind-set. The book focuses on the day-to-day responsibilities of the therapeutic recreation specialist (TRS) while integrating ethical considerations into each aspect of the job. Readers will learn how to perform the daily work of a TRS while maintaining the highest ethical standards of the profession. The book details the principles, theories, and codes of ethics that will form the foundation of specialists' understanding of the field and set the stage for practice. The knowledge, skills, and leadership principles that TRSs will need in order to help their clients accomplish therapeutic outcomes, strategies that will guide TRSs in planning a wide range of programs and services, including information on frequently encountered health problems, major program areas, facilitation strategies, and client and program evaluation and methods for program organization and delivery that will prepare specialists to offer a regular schedule of therapeutic recreation programs that meet the needs of all of their clients, whether in group or individual settings. The book will arm students with the information and tools they need in order to succeed as therapeutic recreation specialists. It familiarizes students with their future clients by describing the health concerns most often encountered in therapeutic settings. Case studies for the most common concerns provide students with concrete examples of how programming works in various clinical settings. The book also provides specific recreation activities from five major program areas along with information on the effectiveness of the activities risk management concerns and implementation strategies Step by step instructions for structuring planning and leading both group and one on one sessions will prepare students to implement programs in a wide variety of settings Stories from professionals in the field examples of real and hypothetical clients and case studies show students how to use the principles they ve learned when leading programs Learning activities help them to further explore the concepts in each chapter and highlight boxes emphasize key ideas related to each chapter s content An instructor guide is available to course adopters at www.HumanKinetics.com/TherapeuticRecreationLeadershipandProgramming
