The conference is the largest scholarly gathering on migration with a global scope. Human mobility, economics, work, employment, integration, insecurity, diversity, and minorities, as well as spatial patterns, culture, arts, and legal and political aspects, appear to be key areas in the current migration debates and research. Throughout the program of the Migration Conference, you will find various key thematic areas covered in 598 presentations by 767 contributors coming from all around the world, from Australia to Canada, China to Colombia, Brazil to Korea and South Africa to Norway. We are proud to bring together experts from universities, independent research organisations, governments, NGOs, and the media. We are also proud to bring you opportunities to meet with some of the leading scholars in the field. This year, invited speakers include Fiona B. Adamson, Markus Kotzur, Philip L. We hope to continue with this tradition, and you will enjoy the Conference and Bari during your stay. We thank all participants, invited speakers, and conference committees for their efforts and contribution. We also thank many colleagues who were interested in and submitted abstracts but could not make it this year. We are particularly grateful to hundreds of colleagues who served as reviewers and helped the selection process. We also thank those colleagues who organised panels and agreed to chair parallel sessions over three days. We reserve our final thanks to the team of volunteers whose contributions have been essential to the success of the conference. In this regard, special thanks are reserved for our volunteers and team leaders: Rosa Alda Franco and Aldo from the University of Bari, Tuncay and Fatma from Regent's University London, Fethiye from Namik Kemal University, and Vildan from Galatasaray University, Ege from Middle East Technical University, Mehari from Regent's University London, and Gizem from Transnational Press London.
