Boswell is the pseudonym for an award-winning freelance photographer with engaging and sometimes controversial stories to tell. You've likely seen his photos in national and international magazines, books, and travel brochures. This ebook will describe how an inspiration during his early years in a tiny rural Midwestern town led to a life spent traveling in 130 countries on all seven continents and how a successful business was built by producing a prolific number of marketable photos as a professional stock and assignment photographer. Filled with entertaining anecdotes and accompanied by 99 photos, Boswell's journey takes readers inside some of the most colorful aspects of editorial and corporate photography: landing and executing magazine assignments, gaining special access required entrance to exclusive corridors of privilege, seeking serendipity in the world's streets and cruising the world's seas and oceans as well as uncovering some dark sides of the industry. Just a few stories include: Waiting for Mandela, chasing Doctor Death, repatriating skyjackers from Cuba, attending Zimbabwe's first session of parliament, surviving the Drake Passage, standing on stage with the Lord of the Dance, roving the pits with famous race drivers, hanging with a Piston Bad Boy, chumming with Sparky in the Tigers locker room, and being interviewed by oral historian Studs Terkel while taking his portrait. One of the first Americans to visit Mao's China during the Cultural Revolution, Boswell returned over fifty times to produce books on China, including a very large one stolen by the French. Several chapters of his unlikely story are devoted to travels in China, how specializing in that country proved a key to his photographic success, and why he fell in love in a rice paddy.
