Emerging Contemporary Readings For Writers:

Emerging Barclay Barrios, 2021-08-10 Emerging helps you think through and today's biggest issues of today helping you improve your writing every step of the way Emerging + Pocket Style Manual 6e Diana Hacker, Barclay Barrios, Nancy Sommers, 2011-11-24 Craft and Conscience Kavita Das, 2022-10-04 The first major book for writers to more effectively engage with complex socio political issues a critical first step in creating social change Writers are witnesses and scribes to society's conscience but writing about social issues in the twenty first century requires a new sharper toolkit Craft and Conscience helps writers weave together their narrative craft analytical and research skills and their conscience to create prose which makes us feel the individual and collective impact of crucial issues of our time Kavita Das guides writers to take on nuanced perspectives and embrace intentionality through a social justice lens She challenges writers to unpack their motivations for writing about an issue and to understand that writing irrespective of genre or outlet is an act of political writing regardless of intention The book includes essays from a fascinating mix of authors including James Baldwin Alexander Chee Kaitlyn Greenidge George Orwell Roxane Dunbar Ortiz Gaiutra Bahadur Jaquira Diaz and Imani Perry By including Das's own perspective and those of the featured writers about motivations and approaches to writing about fraught social issues this book both demystifies the process of engaging social issues on the page and underscores the intentionality and sensitivity that must go into the work Social Structure and Social Interaction Readale Collier, 2018-07-28 The question needs to be pondered over as we have entered in the new millennium On what way we are going What is the nature of social transformation What socio economic forces and value systems are emerging in the country Keeping in view the expected consequences of socio economic development as an instrument of change in the structure and culture the present book mainly deals with Social Structure and Social Interaction This book provides valuable insights into social structure and change in a complex society Well researched and lucidly written this volume will be widely welcomed by all those involved in the study of sociology social anthropology and social change This book is of great help and utility to all those who are interested in knowing the changing social structure Copy(write) Martine Courant Rife, Shaun Slattery, 2011-10-09 Brings together stories theories and research that can further inform the ways in which writing teachers situate and address intellectual property issues in writing classrooms The essays in the collection identify and describe a wide range of pedagogical strategies consider theories present research explore approaches and offer both cautionary tales and local and contextual successes Classic and Contemporary Readings in Sociology Ian Marsh, Rosie Campbell, Mike Keating, 2014-05-12 Classic and Contemporary Readings in Sociology introduces the reader to sociological issues theories and debates providing extracts of primary source material from both classical and contemporary theorists Theorists are examined within their historical and sociological framework and the text provides an analysis of developments in sociological thought and research The text is divided into four main sections Part One Origins and Concepts surveys the history of the discipline of sociology and examines key themes which have influenced sociological theorising and investigation in particular social control culture and socialisation Parts Two and Four Sociological Theories and Sociological Research include a number of readings from the founding theorists and investigators including Auguste Comte Emile Durkheim Karl Marx Max Weber and Charles Booth and also include more recent theoretical writing and research approaches The focus on theory and research is extended by a selection of readings centred around the theme of Differences and Inequalities Part Three these readings provide students with examples of work from an area where sociological theorising and research has been widely applied

Chicago Frederik Byrn Køhlert, 2021-09-23 Chicago occupies a central position in both the geography and literary history of the United States From its founding in 1833 through to its modern incarnation the city has served as both a thoroughfare for the nation's goods and a crossroads for its cultural energies The idea of Chicago as a crossroads of modern America is what guides this literary history which traces how writers have responded to a rapidly changing urban environment and labored to make sense of its place in and implications for the larger whole In writing that engages with the world's first skyscrapers and elevated railroads extreme economic and racial inequality a growing middle class ethnic and multiethnic neighborhoods the Great Migration of African Americans and the city's contemporary incarnation as a cosmopolitan urban center Chicago has been home to a diverse literature that has both captured and guided the themes of modern America

Cosmological Readings of Contemporary Australian Literature Kathrin Bartha-Mitchell, 2023-12-22 This book presents an innovative and imaginative reading of contemporary Australian literature in the context of unprecedented ecological crisis The Australian continent has seen significant rapid changes to its cultures and land use from the impact of British colonial rule yet there is a rich history of Indigenous land ethics and cosmological thought By using the age old idea of cosmos the order of the world to foreground ideas of a good order and chaos reciprocity and more than human agency this book interrogates the Anthropocene in Australia focusing on notions of colonisation farming mining bioethics technology environmental justice and sovereignty It offers cosmological readings of a diverse range of authors Indigenous and non Indigenous as a challenge to the Anthropocene's decline narrative As a result it reactivates cosmos as an ethical vision and a transculturally important counter concept to the Anthropocene Kathrin Bartha Mitchell argues that the arts can help us envision radical cosmologies of being in and with the planet and to address the very real social and environmental problems of our era This book will be of particular interest to scholars and students of Ecocriticism Environmental Humanities and postcolonial transcultural and Indigenous studies with a primary focus on Australian New Zealand Oceanic and Pacific area studies
